

Obituaries

Irene R. Schroeder

Irene R. Schroeder, 82, of Heppner, died Thursday, May 10, 2001, at Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home.

Memorial services were held Sunday, May 13, 2001, at St. Patrick's Senior Center in Heppner. A private committal service will be held later at the Stevensville, Montana, cemetery.

She was born December 30, 1918, at Miles City, Montana, to Harvey and Hazel Campbell Roberts. She was raised and attended schools at Miles City, at Missoula, then in the Bitterroot Valley, graduating from the Stevensville High School.

On October 4, 1938, she married Edgar Schroeder at Stevensville. The couple resided there for 10 years before moving to Western Oregon.

In 1966, following Mr. Schroeder's employment with the Oregon State Parks Department, they moved to the Oregon Coast. They moved to St. Patrick's Senior Center in August 1989. Mr. Schroeder died in September 1989.

Mrs. Schroeder enjoyed traveling, reading and bird watching.

Survivors include daughters, BonnaRae Miller, JoyceKay Hollomon, both of Heppner; sister, R. Lee Petersen, of Boise, Idaho; five grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. A brother, Robert Hargis, died in 1938, and a sister, Marjorie Thompson, died in 1995.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner was in charge of arrangements.

Mildred M. Eubanks

Mildred M. Eubanks, 88, of Heppner, died Saturday, May 12, 2001, at Kadlec Medical Center in Richland, Washington.

A memorial service will be held Thursday, May 17, 2001, at the Ione United Church of Christ.

She was born June 28, 1912, in Morgan, near Ione, to Earl and Mattie Palmateer Morgan. She was raised in Morgan and attended school there and in Ione.

On September 24, 1931, she married John Eubanks in The Dalles. The couple operated a trucking business, a restaurant, a dairy and several wheat ranches through the years.

They bought a cabin at Reids Mill near Parkers Mill south of Heppner, where they spent hunting seasons and special holidays. After their retirement in 1979, they moved to the cabin, remodeling it into a comfortable home.

They moved into Heppner several years ago and recently were residing at St. Patrick's Senior Center.

Mrs. Eubanks was a 55-year member of the American Legion Auxiliary, a 62-year member of the Ione Grange and was a member of the Morrow County CowBelles and the Ione United Church of Christ.

Survivors include her husband, John Eubanks of Heppner; daughter, Sandra Dooney of Irrigon; son, Donald Eubanks in Washington state; sister, Earlene Anders of Portland; seven grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Ione Swimming Pool, P.O. Box 167, Ione, Oregon 97843, or to the United Church of Christ Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 346, Ione, Oregon 97843.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Matthew Hughes

Matthew Hughes, 70, of Heppner, died Sunday, May 13, 2001, at Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, May 18, 2001, at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

He was born September 26, 1930, in Heppner, to Matthew G. and Grace McFerrin Hughes. He grew up on a ranch near Madison Butte in Morrow County. The family later moved into Heppner, where he attended school.

He worked for Case Furniture in Heppner before serving in Japan with the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He returned to Heppner and Case Furniture and Floor Covering, then began M&R Floor Covering, a business he operated from 1964 until his retirement in 1996.

He was a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. Hughes enjoyed reading and carving. He enjoyed his grandchildren, attending their sporting activities and taking them hunting and fishing. He looked

Morrow County School Board Zone Descriptions

(Adopted by the Morrow County School Board February 1, 1993)

The Morrow County School District Board of Directors are elected to their positions by the voters of Morrow County. Each position on the Board of Directors is designed to represent an approximately equal number of citizens. The area encompassing the approximately equal numbers of citizens is called a zone. To become a candidate for election to the Board of Directors the candidate must live in the zone that is advertised as open.

The zones are described as:

ZONE 1

That area south of the Columbia River in Morrow county which includes that area within the City of Boardman north of Interstate 84; that area east of the City of Boardman and north of Wilson Road; that area which is up to one mile south of Wilson Road that is east of Eastregaard Road and west of Bombing Range Road; that area north of Highway 730 which extends from Bombing Range Road to Fourth Street, west of Irrigon.

ZONE 2

That area which includes the Town of Lexington and which also includes that area not contiguous with the Town of Lexington which includes that area east of a N-S line extending Paul Smith Road (Ione Road) in Boardman, which extends from the Boardman Canal at the north and to a E-W line one mile south of Township 1 S at the south end, and which is bounded by Highway 207 and the Bombing Range Road to the Finley Buttes Road on the east and which extends east on Finley Buttes Road (extended) to the Umatilla County line and north to Interstate 84. The eastern boundary extends north along the western boundary of the Umatilla Ordinance Depot and north of the Depot on Division Street to County Road and west on County Road to 1st Street and north on 1st Street to Utah Street and west on Utah Street to Second Street and north on Second Street to Highway 730 and southwest on Highway 730 to the Bombing Range Road and south on Bombing Range Road two miles and northwest on a line where Eastregaard Road intersects with the Boardman Canal and westerly along the Canal to the beginning N-S line that extends Paul Smith Road.

ZONE 3

That area in Morrow County which is west of a N-S line extending Paul Smith Road (Ione Road) in Boardman, which extends from the Columbia River at the north to the Wheeler County line at the south.

ZONE 4

That area within the Heppner City limits except that area east of Cowins Street, Court Street and Highway 74, north and east from its junction with Court Street.

ZONE 5

That area south of the Columbia River in Morrow County which extends from the Umatilla County line on the east to Interstate 84 on the south and extends north along the Umatilla Ordinance Depot western boundary and north of the Depot on Division Street to County Road and west on County Road to 1st street and north on 1st Street to Utah Street and west on Utah Street to Second Street and north on Second Street to Highway 730 and north on Fourth Street to the Columbia River.

ZONE 6

That area in Morrow County east of a N-S line extending Paul Smith Road (Ione Road) in Boardman, which extends from the Wheeler County line to a E-W line one mile south of Township 1 S, east on that E-W line to Highway 207 and northeast on Highway 207 to Bombing Range Road and north on Bombing Range Road to Finley Buttes Road to the Umatilla County line, except for that area detailed in Zone 4.

ZONE 7

That area east of Paul Smith Road (Ione Road); north of the Boardman Canal; west of Eastregaard Road; south of Wilson Road, which is east of the City of Boardman; and that area within the City of Boardman which is south of Interstate 84.

Morrow County School Board Zones

Gary Frederickson was elected from Zone 1; Dwayne Carroll and newly-elected John Renfro, Zone 2; John Rietmann, Zone 3; Keith Lewis, Zone 4; Pat McNamee, Zone 5; Barney Lindsay, Zone 6; and Julie Weikel, Zone 7.

Ione Booster Club discusses track

The Cardinal Booster Club met Thursday, May 10, at the Ione High School library. The club discussed the poor condition of the jumps area of the track. Work needs to be done to replace the mats or pave the area before next track season. President Debbie Radie will contact businesses to see if the club can get support for that project.

The Fourth of July shirts have been ordered and will arrive May 25. The navy blue, long-sleeved embroidered shirts will be sold for $20 apiece. The shirts will be sold at Wheatland Insurance prior to the 4th of July, and are available in adult sizes medium to 2X. The club will also sell past years' shirts, including children's sizes, for $15 each.

It was noted the girls' tennis team won the state Dairy Farmers of Oregon academic award this spring.

Charity McElligott reported on the upcoming bicycle race in Ione on June 8. The club was asked to help serve the dinner. The club will have to cook the potatoes, barbecue the steaks and clean up after the meal is served. Anyone who can help with this money-making project is asked to call Debbie Morgan at 422-7504.

A summer league boys' basketball tournament will be held in Ione on June 16-17. The club will sponsor concessions.

The club voted to donate $100 to the track team and $25 to the tennis team to help with state expenses. Following the business meeting Dale Holland and his conditioning students demonstrated the Bigger (Better) Faster Stronger program. Students participating were Cayle Krebs, Jeff Hunt, Karl Morgan, Amanda Emery, Barbara Holland, Paul Neiffer and Cameron Krebs.

The next meeting of the Cardinal Booster Club will be Thursday, June 14, at 7 p.m., at the Ione High School library.

Ione Elementary plans visitation

Ione Elementary School will have a kindergarten visitation morning on May 24 from 9:45 a.m.-12 noon for children who will be five by September 1, 2001.

Students will visit the kindergarten classroom and parents will be able to visit with school staff about the kindergarten program.

Parents should bring proof of birth date, immunization record and the child's social security number in order to register their student. Students will remain for lunch and their parents may pick them up at noon.

forward to their visits, especially during his recent confined years.

Survivors include son, Terry Hughes of LaGrande; daughter, Teresa Hughes of Heppner; special friend of 18 years, Bobbie Angell of Heppner; sisters, Melba Quackenbush, June Belenbrock and Betty Pettyjohn, all of Heppner, and Edna Kohlman of Portland; four grandchildren; four stepchildren, Jim, Bobbette, Craig and Marc; and 11 step-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by brothers, Bob, Elwyn, Marvin and Homer; and sisters, Lena, Kelly, Edith Pfeil and Ethel Gaarde.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Hospital, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836, or Heppner High School Booster Club, P.O. Box 917, Heppner, Oregon 97836, or the Heppner High School Wildhorse Club, P.O. Box 67, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Lucille Massey

Lucille Massey, 90, formerly of Heppner, died on May 4, 2001, in Riverside, California, of heart failure.

During World War II, she and her children moved to Heppner from North Dakota. Upon the return of her husband, Eddie Gunderson, Sr., from the Army, they moved to Salem to do nursing at the state hospital. After a year they returned to Heppner where she held various jobs until her divorce.

Later, after her marriage to Francis Troedson from Ione, she relocated to Hermiston. Widowhood then took her back to the Oregon State Hospital in Salem and later to Dammasch State Hospital in Wilsonville where she retired in 1976. Marriage to Ray Massey brought her back to Heppner where she resided until his death. In 1994 she moved to Riverside, California, to reside with her daughter and family.

Survivors include son, Eddie Gunderson, Jr.; grandsons, David and Doug Gunderson; great-grandsons Brent and Derek Gunderson, all of Heppner; daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Tom Schoonover of Riverside; sister Marge Guerra and daughter-in-law Linda Gunderson of Portland; eight additional grandchildren and 12 additional great-grandchildren.

Lucille was preceded in death by son, Don Gunderson, grandson Richard Gunderson and daughter-in-law Beverly Gunderson.

Memorial contributions may be made to Heppner Elks 358 Elevator Fund, c/o Eddie Gunderson, Jr, 810 Hep-Spray Hwy, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

HHS sports dessert set

The Heppner High School spring sports dessert will be held at the high school cafeteria on Monday, May 21, at 7 p.m.

SHOW YOUR GRADUATE HOW PROUD YOU ARE.

Hallmark cards work

Hallmark. Where Great Graduation Gifts Come Together.

We have "Made To Order Gift Baskets" and Free Gift Wrapping

Murray's Drug INC.

217 North Main • Heppner • 676-9158
Serving Heppner, Lexington & Ione

Be An Outdoorsman.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 661

Organizational Meeting
Sunday, May 20
at 6 p.m.
Heppner Elks Club
(upstairs)

We'll Show You How.

Morrow County Dryland Crop Tour
Thursday, June 7th
7:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Topics:
Alternative Crops
Fertilizer Placement for Spring Wheat Production
Winter and Spring Cereal Varieties
Cheatgrass/Goatgrass Weed Control in Winter Wheat

Watch for more information to follow!
For immediate questions, please call the
Morrow County Extension office at (541) 676-9642.