The Barnyarders 4-H swine club recently had a wonderful opportunity when Kelwayne Haguewood donated a young sow to the club. The club members decided to have the pig butchered. The meat would then be donated to the Heppner Neighborhood Center, St. Patrick's Senior Center and the Stokes

Landing Senior Center in Irrigon. Pat Schwarz donated the butchering fee and the club paid him to cut and wrap the pig. The hanging weight of the sow carcass was 600 pounds. Some of the club members were present to see the hog butchered. They learned more about the internal organ parts including the heart, intestinal tract and the reproductive system from club leader Bill Jepsen.

Shelby Krebs receives Elks Legacy award

Shelby Krebs

Shelby Krebs, daughter of Clint and Maureen Krebs of Ione, was recently awarded a $1,000 Elks Legacy Scholarship.

To be eligible for the Legacy, a student must be the child of an Elk member in good standing. This year, a total of 352 legacy scholarships were awarded to graduating seniors throughout the country. Seven of these awards were given to students in Oregon. Shelby's father, Clint, has been an Elk member for 25 years, and grandfather, Henry Krebs, is a life member. She is a graduate of Ione High School and is the first student from BPOE Lodge #358 to receive a legacy award. "BPOE Lodge #358 congratulates Shelby on her award," said a spokesperson.

Teen tournament set in Boardman

A FLY (Friday, Life Youth) three-on-three basketball tournament for teens enrolled in middle school or high school will be held this Friday, June 8, from 1-5:30 p.m. at Columbia Middle School in Irrigon.

Besides basketball, kick boxing, art displays and games will also be available.

The cost is free, but teens must complete a FLY registration form.

Friends and family members are invited to watch the tournament, but only teens may participate.

Flea market set in Boardman

It's that time again... Time to put on your walking shoes and enjoy a day at Boardman's Annual Flea Market. The flea market, in its seventh year, will be on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 9-11 along NE Front Street in Boardman.

The fun begins at dawn and lasts until dusk. Local vendors, as well as vendors from Arizona, Washington, California and other parts of Oregon, will be on hand with a variety of items to buy.

Organizer Judy Scott said that there will be lots of good buys, including antiques, tools, clothes, food, woodworking, kites, knickknacks and other items. There will be train rides up and down the flea market for those who enjoy a break from walking.

For more information, contact Judy Scott at 481-7606.

Julie Proctor Heppner Girls State delegate

Julie Proctor

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit #87 announces Julie Proctor as their delegate for Oregon's Girls State.

Julie is the 17-year-old daughter of Mike and Kay Proctor of Heppner and is a junior at Heppner High School. She became interested in Girls State while attending "Rural Oregon Day" with the Heppner Chamber of Commerce this past winter.

She is active as a member of the HHS Honor Society, Heppner Chamber of Commerce high school representative, OSSOM president, Pipeline instructor and STARS instructor. She has been re-elected for a second term as the ASB publicity director. Julie has also participated as a teacher's assistant, drama student, HHS volleyball player and cheerleader. She is active in the Catholic Youth Group as well as 4-H in sewing, swine and cooking, and was also a 4-H ambassador.

Julie's plans to go into public relations and communications or elementary education.

The 61st annual Girls State will be held at Willamette University, June 17-23. The program is designed to increase the awareness and knowledge of governmental processes and procedures at the city, county and state levels. It is a hands-on experience with role playing and active participation as the primary mode of learning. There will also be workshops on personal-growth, selecting a college, mock trials and open forums of discussion on current events.

This year's sponsor for this scholarship was the American Legion Post #87, Heppner.

Lions Club plans picnic

The Heppner Lions Club annual picnic and awards presentation will be held Saturday, June 9, at 6 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

Cost is $15 for a steak dinner or $12 for a chicken dinner. Members are asked to bring their choice of a salad or dessert.

The master of ceremonies is Lions Club President Dick Paris. Guest of honor is Carol Tate. The program will also include installation of officers, new members and presentation of awards.
