George L. Ross, award winning author, will host a book signing for his novel "The Chicken Dutchman," at the Heppner Senior Center, on July 18, from 1-3 p.m.

George was born in Heppner and resided here until the age of 13, when the family moved to The Dalles. During his early years, George had heard talk of the chicken Dutchman, and often wondered who the man was and how he came to be in Heppner. This became the inspiration for his novel.

The story begins with a young couple growing up in Holland, fleeing from the Nazis, just prior to WWII and ultimately settling in Heppner. The woman feels she'll be safe in Heppner forever but her husband is not so sure...

Hope to see you at the Senior Center.
