

Welcome to the world of magic

THE DICK FROST
COMEDY-MAGIC SHOW

Dick Frost will welcome you to the world of make-believe with his presentation of illusion and magical skills at the fair Friday from noon to 1 p.m.

"Frost differs from most magicians in the world of entertainment today-not only does he entertain, surprise and mystify his audiences, he also captivates them because of his broad background of education, travel and experiences," according to a release.

Frost has studied drama, the theater, and education. He has an associate of arts degree, a bachelor of arts and a master's degree. He also has a degree for two years of study in magic with the "late, great" Ben Chavez of Hollywood who helped him to develop and perfect his skills of "magical manipulation".

"Children and adults will love the guest appearance of Mr. Longears, and will see what his birthday present will be this year."

Take a chance

Chamber member Darrell Raver shows mountain bikes and recliner to be raffled off as a Chamber of Commerce fund raiser.

Want to kick off those boots and roll into a new recliner or roll through the mountain trails on a bike after the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro-Rodeo? Then you'll want to take a chance on winning the Heppner Chamber of Commerce drawing for a leather recliner or a mountain bike.

Tickets will be available throughout the Fair and Rodeo week at $5 each or three for $10. It takes only one to win. The first ticket drawn will be for the recliner and the next two for the mountain bikes.

Tickets will be drawn on Sunday, Aug. 19, at the Morrow County Rodeo. One need not be present to win.

Proceeds from the drawing will go toward printing of new Heppner brochures, banners and Christmas decorations. The Chamber appreciates the community support of their non-dues projects. Have a great time at the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro-Rodeo.
