

Green Feed & Seed wins sheep dressing contest

Stickhorse race fun for the younger set

By Sherree Mahoney

One of the most "popular and fun-to-watch" races of the year was held on Sunday, Aug. 19 at the Morrow County Rodeo. Thirty contestants were entered in the "Stick Horse Race". The usual array of stick horses, stick bulls and just plain sticks was a sight to behold. Rearing and spinning and ready to run were some of the fiercest racers in the world.

In the three-and-under age group, Bethany Van Cleave was first; Riley Gorham was second and Brooke Wheeler, third. Taking first in the four and five-year-olds, was Blake Greenup; Aidan Wright was second; and Ryan Dougherty was a close

Dog calling contest new, fun fair event

By Sherree Mahoney

A new and exciting event was held this year on Aug. 17 at the Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo Friday night performance.

If you weren't there to watch "the Call Your Dog Contest", you missed a very fun and funny event. Dogs from Madras, Eugene, Sherwood, Heppner, Lexington and Pendleton came ready to compete.

Steve Kenyon announced the start of the race and they were off. Dogs were literally everywhere, but then they quickly paired up with their owners at the finish line, with the exception of rodeo clown/barellman Joe Sanford's dog which was still shaking on the start line at the finish of the race.

Cecilia Moyers' dog "Lacey" was crowned the champion, winning a giant three-foot trophy sponsored second Shobe Enterprises; third Rodeo Bandits; fourth Gentry Home Improvements.

The winners in the very competitive six and seven-year-old division were Zane Davis, first place, Callahan Crossley, second and Zachary Orem, third.

Sponsors of the medals were: Mark and Tami Rietmann, Joe and Donna Rietmann, John and Kelly Boyer and Bob and Sherree Mahoney. HM Ranch donated the trophies, made by Randall Peterson of Peterson's Jewelers and presented by the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court Queen Tammy Booth and Princess Kelsey Greenup.

Donna Rietmann, Haley Davis, Lacey Matteson and Alexis Doutré took entries. The Rodeo Bandits helped in the arena with the kids and their parents and Steve Kenyon announced the event by HM Ranch. Taking second place was "Moose", owned by Tiffanie Greenup. Angie Hughes' dog "Heidi" was a close third.

OTPR and Bob and Sherree Mahoney and HM Ranch provided the $100 added bonus money. HM Ranch also sponsored the trophy which was made by Randall Peterson of Peterson's Jewelers.

The Rodeo Bandits helped organize the dogs and their callers and were the judges of the contest. Rodeo announcer Steve Kenyon got the audience excited and ready for the race.

Event organizer Bob Mahoney felt the event was very successful but some changes will be made next year to improve the contest next year. Bob said, "The only downside was my dog 'Rusty' finished last."

Man guilty of beating wife

Antonio Garcia Fernandez, 37, was found guilty August 23 of Assault in the Fourth Degree, Menacing and Harassment in the beating of his wife.

Fernandez was sentenced to serve 180 days on each count of assault and menacing with credit for time served waiting for trial. He was also ordered to serve 30 days for harassment. Judge Gary Reynolds ruled that the sentences for assault and menacing would run consecutively. Moreover, Judge Reynolds found that the attack was "vicious", according to Morrow County District Attorney David C. Allen, and ruled that Fernandez would not be entitled to any early release or work release.

Allen said that Fernandez was charged for beating his wife with a section of garden hose approximately 15 to 20 times and for threatening her with a large knife obtained from their kitchen.

The trial was conducted before a judge and not a jury after the defendant waived his right to a jury trial. According to Allen, Judge Reynolds found that a garden hose did not fall within the legal definition of a "dangerous weapon" in this case and the defendant was acquitted on the greater charge of Assault in the Second Degree.

Fernandez is currently held in the Umatilla County Jail serving his 360 days.

Recall group plans ice cream social

The "Save Our Schools" committee will be having an ice cream social at the Heppner City Park this Thursday, Aug. 30, between 5-6:30 p.m.

Those interested in additional information or in signing a recall petition of school board members are invited to attend.

The petitions for the school board recall are due to be delivered to the Morrow County Clerk on Sept. 12.
