

Mustangs nipped by top-ranked Amity 14-7

Michael McCabe gains yardage against Amity

By Rick Paullus

In one of the best football games played in Heppner in a long time, the top-ranked and three-time defending Class 2A champion Amity Warriors just got by the third-ranked Mustangs, 14-7, on Friday, Sept. 14. The early season game had a playoff atmosphere and was hard-hitting as both teams had drives killed by turnovers and penalties.

The Mustangs will begin defense of their Columbia Basin Conference title by hosting Pilot Rock on Friday, Sept. 21, in their homecoming game.

The Warriors took the opening kickoff and drove down the field but had their drive ended by an interception by Chuy Elguezabal in the end zone.

A false start penalty, a three-yard run by Michael McCabe, a 10-yard run by Elguezabal, another false start penalty and no gain forced a Heppner punt. The punt was fumbled and recovered by Luke Murray at mid-field. The Mustangs were unable to move the ball and Amity took over on downs.

Brad Adams picked off a halfback pass and returned it to the Warrior 36-yard line. Adams went for four and McCabe went for 10 and a first down at the 22. The Mustangs lost yards and were forced to punt, which was downed at the one on a great play by Elguezabal.

The Warriors moved the ball to mid-field, but Sam Van Liew knocked down a pass on fourth down to give the Mustangs the ball. Elguezabal lost four yards but McCabe picked up nine to the 50. Elguezabal then hit Kelly Paullus for a 27-yard gain to the 23. McCabe ran for two and, after an incomplete pass, Elguezabal scrambled around and hit McCabe in the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown. McCabe's kick gave the Mustangs a 7-0 lead at halftime.

The Mustangs were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt. The Warriors moved down the field with Clint Groom scoring on a three-yard run. Groom's extra point tied the score at 7-7 with 6:47 left in the third.

On the Mustangs' next possession, Elguezabal hit McCabe for a 48-yard gain, but the Warriors picked off a pass and returned it to the Amity 47-yard line.

The Mustangs got the ball back as David Norton fell on a fumble at the Heppner 48. On third and 13, Elguezabal hit McCabe for a 20-yard gain. Paullus ran for four, but an interception was returned for a touchdown. It was called back by a block below the waist.

The Warriors drove to the Mustang five and scored on a fourth down pass from Heath Ferrando to Baltazar Campuzano to take the lead. Groom's kick made it 14-7 with 9:24 left in the game.

McCabe returned the ensuing kickoff 68 yards to the Amity 22. A face mask penalty and two runs by Brad Adams moved the ball to the 10. A fumble lost a yard but Elguezabal hit Adams for a six-yard gain. An incomplete pass on fourth down gave the Warriors the ball at the five.

The defense forced a punt with the Mustangs taking over at their own 47 after a clipping penalty. McCabe lost seven on first down but took a screen pass 24 yards and a first down at the Amity 36-yard line. After an incomplete pass, false start and another incomplete pass, Elguezabal hit McCabe for a 16-yard gain and first down.

After another penalty, Adams ran for 12. On fourth and 20 from the 35, a pass to the endzone was knocked down and Amity ran out the clock to take the win.

The Mustangs weren't able to consistently run the ball, but Elguezabal hit nine of 20 passes for 179 yards and a touchdown with two interceptions. McCabe had six receptions for 134 yards and a touchdown.

The defense was led by McCabe with 21 points. Travis Bellamy and Brad Adams each had 20 points. Adams had a fumble recovery and an interception. Elguezabal had 17 points and an interception. Norton had 17 points and a fumble recovery. Donald Adams had 16 points and Brian Rust had 15, along with the hit of the night put on the Warriors' Groom.

Heppner homecoming this Friday

Heppner High School students, (left to right) Shelley Rietmann, Stefanie Hanson, Jode Coil and Kevin Drake, get into the spirit of "Hawaiian Day" Tuesday during homecoming week. The homecoming game is this Friday at 7:30 p.m. vs. Pilot Rock. The homecoming dance will be held at the school from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m.

By Julie Proctor

Heppner High School has announced its 2001 homecoming court. The court, voted on by the student body, is as follows: Rachel Howard and Marcy Miller, junior princesses; Donald Adams and Brad Adams, junior princes; Julie Proctor, Meghan Bailey and Codi Rosecrans, senior princesses and Stefan Matheny, Travis Bellamy and Brad Bowman, senior princes. The junior court includes Garrett Robinson and Hanna Lovgren, both six.

The school scheduled noon-time activities and dress-up days during homecoming week. Monday was "hillbilly day"; Tuesday was "Hawaiian day"; Wednesday, "punk rock day"; and Thursday, "Mustang day."

Mustangs VB team loses to Blue Devils

By Tyllynn Smith

The Heppner Mustangs volleyball team lost to the Condon Blue Devils on Tuesday, Sept. 11, 15-1, 15-1.

It was a quick game for the varsity, with the team getting only 62 percent of their serves and scoring only two points total. Shelley Rietmann made the only point during the first game and Jodie Carlson scored in the second game.

The team did a great job picking up Condon's serves and sending them back over the net, but lost the game when they weren't able to pick up the Devils' attacks.

The JV team played a tough game against Condon that day, but lost to the Blue Devils, 15-11, 15-11. The JVs got on top of that game with serves that the Devils were unable to pick up. The team had great serves from Rachel Howard, Genia Grant and Marcy Miller.

The Mustangs had another game on Thursday, Sept. 13, against Riverside in Boardman. The girls were defeated in three tough games, winning the first, 15-12, but then losing the next two, 16-14 and 15-9.

The girls played long and hard. Heppner had good serves, serving at 83 percent, and played great games, but still didn't bring home the win.

The JV team also played three games against Riverside, winning the first 15-10, but also losing the next two, 15-3 and 15-10.

The JV team was 89 percent for serves, receiving outstanding serves from Rachel Howard and Madison Bailey.

Heppner's C-team had a game that night against Riverside and came out on top with a two-game win, 15-12 and 15-6.

The C-team also had a game Monday, Sept. 17, against Riverside. The team left the scene with the loss, but not after putting up a fight and playing three games. The game ended with the Mustangs winning the first game 15-10, but losing the second two, 15-11, 15-11.

Ione VB team defeats Spray

The Ione High School Volleyball team easily defeated Spray in two games, 15-4, 15-4, on Sept. 14.

Diana McElligott was the leading scorer for the Lady Cardinals with 12 points. McElligott served over three aces, three kills and five hits. Meghan M. McCabe scored six points, delivered one ace serve and led the team with set assists. Natalie McElligott scored five points, serving one ace and two kills.

Megan E. McCabe slugged over five points, including one ace serve and aided her teammates with set assists. Salli McElligott scored one point, hammered two kills and had two blocks. Amellia Peck scored one point and led her team with five kills. Cyndi Heagy hit two kills and led the team with three blocks.

The Lady Cardinals served 87 percent, hit 85 percent and were 86 percent successful with their passes.
