The Ione Junior High School football team defeated the South Sherman team, 52-18, on Friday, Sept. 21, at Moro. The team is made up of five eighth graders and six sixth graders. Coaches are Dean Robinson and Steve Schaber. Their next game will be held Friday, Sept. 28, at Echo.

Sixth-ranked Ione defeats Redsides

The sixth-ranked Ione Cardinals football team improved their record to 3-0 by defeating the South Wasco Redsides 57-34 in their first league game of the season on September

21. The Cardinals were ahead after the first quarter, 8-0, and wore down the Redsides' defense in the second quarter to take a 38-0 lead and eventually a 44-8 halftime score.

In the second half of the game, coach Dale Holland was able to play some of the younger players.

The Cardinal offense was led by quarterback Brad Burright, who was 3 for 4 passing for 83 yards and two touchdowns. Burright also had two touchdown runs of 10 and 14 yards. He finished the day with 10 carries for 100 yards.

Nick Christman took over at quarterback in the second quarter and was 5 of 10 for 121 yards with two touchdown passes. He also had a touchdown run of 65 yards and finished the day with five carries for 109 yards.

Andrew Rietmann ran nine times for 101 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown run. Other runners included Ashley Roberts with three carries for 22 yards; Billy Gates, three for 12 yards; Brian Gutierrez, three for six yards; and Derek Campbell, one for two yards.

The Cardinal receivers were led by Adam McCabe, who caught three passes for 103 yards, including two touchdowns of 22 yards and 50 yards. Adam Neiffer caught three passes for 101 yards, including two touchdowns of 31 yards and 45 yards. Tyler Raible caught one pass for three yards, which counted for two points on the conversion.

The Cardinals' defense was led by Ashley Roberts with 16 tackles (five solo); Derek Campbell had 13 tackles (eight solo); Mike Radie, eight assisted tackles; Til Tullis, seven tackles (one solo); Colin McElligott, six tackles (four solo) and one fumble recovery; Brian Gutierrez, six tackles (one solo); Cameron Krebs, six tackles (one solo); Brad Burright, five tackles (one solo); Karl Morgan, four tackles (two solo); Paul Neiffer, four tackles (two solo); Koby Rea, four tackles (three solo); Billy Ross, four tackles; Adam Neiffer, four tackles; Nick Christman, three tackles (two solo); Billy Gates, three tackles (one solo) and one fumble recovery; Adam McCabe, two tackles (one solo) and one fumble recovery; Cayle Krebs, two solo tackles; and Tyler Raible, two tackles.

Before the game started, there was a moment of silence in memory of the people who had lost their lives in the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center in New York, the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and Flight 93 that crashed near Pittsburgh, PA.

The Cardinals' next game will be Friday, Sept. 28, against Lyle, Washington at Ione, starting at 7 p.m.

Colts even record with wins

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Colts evened their record at 1 and 1 with a home win over Columbia Auto Body, 30-15, on Monday, Sept. 24. The Colts had lost to Simplot in Hermiston, 22-0, on Wednesday, Sept. 19.

Matt McCabe scored the first of his four touchdowns on a 14-yard run in the first quarter to give the Colts a 6-0 lead.

The Colts drove deep into Columbia Auto Body territory, but turned the ball over, then got a safety on a fumble in the end zone.

Columbia Auto Body came back with a 55 yard pass play for a touchdown and converted the extra point to get within 8-7.

McCabe stepped in front of a pass and returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. Eric Skaggs kicked the extra point to make it 16-7 at halftime.

The Colts drove the ball down the field to open the third quarter with McCabe scoring on a 12-yard run. Skaggs' kick was good to make it 24-7.

Columbia came right back to score on a 60-yard pass and run, plus kicked the extra point to get within 24-15.

The Colts ended the scoring with a late touchdown on a four-yard run by McCabe. The kick was blocked to make the final 30-15.

Logan Anthony and Braden Britt had interceptions in the second half to end Columbia Auto Body drives.

JVs compete in tourney

The Ione junior varsity team participated in the Heppner junior varsity tournament on Saturday, Sept. 22. Ione was victorious on two games, one against the Heppner JV and one against the Weston-McEwen JV, but lost four games during the day to Heppner JV, Weston McEwen JV and two to Wahtonka JV.

Ione scored a total of 46 points during the day, serving 79 percent for the tournament.

Caitlin Orem led her team with 11 points, three hits, two diving digs and led the team with set assists. Katie Hams scored eight points, delivered one ace and displayed exceptional back row play with two diving digs for her team. Missy Baker scored seven points, hustled to the ball to get four passes to her teammates and dug up two diving digs. Barbara Holland scored seven points, delivered six passes and dug up one diving dig.

Team captain Tracy Griffith, scored five points, delivered five hits, six diving digs and had two set assists. Emily Key scored four points, had seven hits, five diving digs and aided Caitlin Orem with set assists. Kim Morris had outstanding tournament play, displayed excellent back row play, scored two points, delivered six passes and dug up one diving dig. Sara Peck led the team with seven hits, one kill, one point and four set assists. Amanda Emery scored one point and delivered two hits.

Jamie VandenBrink was credited for her leadership on the court by keeping her teammates focused. VandenBrink, who was an integral part of the Cardinal effort, scored one point and received nine serves. Macarena Esposito was on fire in the back court, digging up three diving digs and delivering three set assists to her teammates.

Ponies and Raiders battle to tie

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Ponies and the visiting Columbia Raiders battled to a 0-0 tie on Friday, Sept. 21. The Ponies' record stands at 1-0-1 with a home game against Umatilla on Friday, Sept. 28, at 2 p.m.

Each team had scoring opportunities but the defense stood up and held the offense out of the end zone.

Peter Geer, Aaron Allstott, Rory Kilkenny and Matthew Van Cleave anchored the defensive line for the Ponies with linebackers Matt Kenny, Kyle Carlson, Colton Hansen and Kody Lovgren also having good games.

Heppner hosts JV invitational

By Tylynn Smith

The Heppner Mustangs JV hosted a tournament Saturday, Sept. 22, where JV teams from Ione, Condon, Sherman County and Weston-McEwen played. Both JV and "C" teams competed for Wahtonka and Heppner.

Heppner's JV and C-teams both made it to the championship bracket, along with Wahtonka JV and Sherman County. First place was awarded to Wahtonka JV, second place to Heppner JV, third place to Sherman County and fourth place to Heppner C-team.

Heppner left the tournament with five wins and one loss before the championship bracket and the C-team left with four wins and two losses.

In the championship bracket, the Heppner JV team won against Sherman County and lost against Wahtonka JV. The C-team lost against both Sherman County and the Wahtonka JV.

Heppner's varsity team lost to Ione on Monday, Sept. 18, 15-10, 15-8.

Heppner served 82 percent, scoring off 52 percent of the made serves. The girls played hard, but just didn't take home the gold.

The JV team also played that night, losing to Ione, 15-0, 15-8.

The C-team won three games against Umatilla on Monday, Sept. 24, at home.

Heppner won the match against Umatilla in the first two games, 15-10, 15-9. The games went so fast that the teams decided to play an extra game where Heppner also took the win, 15-5. The team received outstanding serves from Danielle Prindle, Cara Kennedy, Blair Keithley and Tiffany Piper.

All three teams will play Thursday, Sept. 27, in Ione, beginning at 5 p.m.
