Our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Ed Beretta, the nurses, staff and ambulance crew at Pioneer Memorial Hospital-David wouldn't be here without you; Molly Rhea who was a veritable wonder woman helped in the ER, drove April to Portland, cleaned house, planted pansies and kept up our morale; our kids, Chris, Andy, Allison and Camille, who were great; our family, Vickie and Charlie Lewis and Arden Sykes and family, who helped out in so many ways; Steve Rhea, Donna and Gary Schonbacher, Merilee and Bill McDowell and Karen Clough, for your help and moral support; everyone who called, stopped by, sent cards, or brought flowers, food or gifts. We couldn't have gotten through it without your prayers and concern. Thank you so much.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You
 I have never written a thank you note before. When people brought dishes of food over, Lorena always marked them. Now I have a lot of dishes, some with no names on them, so I need your help.
 The service was very good. Craig Strobel, Rick Drake and Guy Jones did a wonderful job. The services were a great tribute to Lorena.
 We were overwhelmed by the crowd, the compassion and all your love and support. My goodness - I would like to thank everyone personally, but I don't think I would live long enough to do it.
 All I can say is thank you and God Bless each and every one of you wonderful people for your beautiful flowers, great food, loving support and for being such caring friends.
 I haven't had that many hugs and kisses for years.
 We love you all!

Love and prayers,
 Floyd Jones,
 Marcia and Larry Sticka
