Ione tennis teams compete against Arlington Honkers

Adam Neiffer

Ione tennis teams traveled to Arlington on Thursday, April 4, to battle against the Honkers. The Ione boys split with Arlington with Adam Neiffer posting a 6-0, 6-3 win against Kevin Brandt. Jeff Hunt and Brian Bunch teamed up and were defeated by Bud Drummond and Jakub Sotak, 3-6, 3-6.

In girls' action, Caitlin Orem had a match which lasted approximately two and a half hours. Orem lost the first set, 3-6, against hard-hitting Anna Durka, lobbed over her opponent to take the second set to win, 6-2, but lost the third set 3-6. Sara Peck lost to Michelle Barry 1-8. Macarena Esposito posted the only win for the Ione women, defeating Jenny Smith, 8-1.

Mustangs drop game to Eagles

By Rick Paullus

The Wahtonka Eagles scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh inning to beat the visiting Heppner Mustangs, 13-12, on Thursday, April 4, in The Dalles. The Mustangs' record dropped to 6 and 3 in the pre-season with their first Columbia Basin Conference games at Condon on Saturday, April 13, for an important doubleheader beginning at 11 a.m.

The Mustangs took a 2-0 lead early as Stefan Matheny led off the game with a triple and Kelly Paullus followed up with a homerun to left field.

The Eagles scored an unearned run in the bottom half of the first, but the Mustangs responded with four more in the second. Josh Winters walked and came around to score as Travis Bellamy doubled off the fence in left centerfield. Luke Murray had an rbi single, Matheny was hit by a pitch and both runners moved over on a Paullus sacrifice bunt. McCabe followed up with a two-rbi single to make it 6-1.

The Eagles came back with six runs in the third and three more in the fourth to take a 10-6 lead, but the Mustangs came back with two in the fifth as Brad Adams tripled and Winters walked and stole second. Adams scored as Murray reached on an error and Winters scored as Matheny reached on another error.

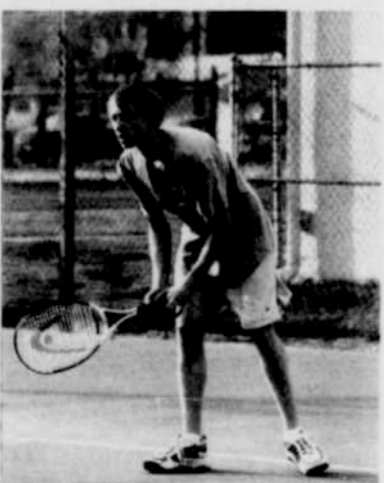

The Mustangs regained the lead in the sixth as McCabe hit a long homerun to left centerfield. Billy Gates walked and went to third on Brad Adams' double. Winters had an rbi ground-out and Bellamy had an rbi single.

The Eagles came back to tie in the bottom half, but the Mustangs responded with a run in the top of the seventh as Paullus tripled and scored on Gates' ground-out. The lead was short-lived though, as the Eagles came back with two runs in the bottom half to get the win.

Paullus went two for four with a triple and a homerun, Bellamy was two for four with two rbi's, Matheny was two for four with a triple, McCabe went two for five with a homerun and three rbi's, and Brad Adams went two for five with a double and a triple.

Gutierrez leads Mustangs past Wahtonka Eagles

By Rick Paullus

Senior catcher Jesse Gutierrez had the game-winning hit twice to lead the Heppner Mustang softball team past the visiting Wahtonka Eagles in an exciting doubleheader to open EOL play. Gutierrez singled home Genia Grant from second base in the bottom of the seventh inning to give the Mustangs a come-from-behind 6-5 win in the first game. The Mustangs spotted the Eagles an 11-0 lead in the top of the first inning in the second game, but rallied to win in the bottom of the eighth, 17-14, on a Gutierrez three-run homerun to centerfield.

The Mustangs improved to 3 and 6 on the year as Jesse Kempas picked up two complete game wins from the mound.

The Mustangs will play at Culver on Saturday, April 13.

Gutierrez doubled in the second inning of game one and came around to score on a bases-loaded walk by Jenny Whalen to give the Mustangs a 1-0 lead they held until the top of the fourth, when the Eagles scored three runs.

The Mustangs added another run in the fifth when Nikki Sisk doubled and scored on a Kempas single, but the Eagles came back with two more in the sixth to take a 5-2 lead.

In the bottom of the sixth, Marcy Miller singled, Whalen walked, Sisk had an rbi single and Kempas drove in two more with a single to tie the game at 5-5.

In the bottom of the seventh, Grant walked, went to second on a throwing error on a pick-off attempt and came around to score the winning run on Gutierrez's single.

Kempas was two for three with three rbi's, Sisk was two for three, scored two runs with a double and an rbi, Gutierrez went two for three with a double and an rbi and Miller went two for two.

After the Mustangs spotted the Eagles the 11-0 lead in the second game, they came back with five of their own in the bottom of the first as Rachel Howard singled, Grant singled, Gutierrez had an rbi single and stole second, which allowed Grant to score. Alecia Geer walked, Miller had a two-rbi single, Blake Allstott reached on a fielder's choice, Kassie Gaines walked and Sisk had an rbi single.

The Mustangs added two more in the fourth when Kempas and Howard singled, Grant reached on a fielder's choice and Gutierrez had a two-rbi double off the field in left centerfield.

The Mustangs came all the way back in the fifth as Allstott doubled, Gaines and Sisk reached on errors, Kempas had a sacrifice fly and Howard was hit by a pitch. Grant had a two-rbi single, Gutierrez had an rbi single, Geer had a sacrifice fly and Gutierrez scored as Miller reached on an error to give the Mustangs a 13-11 lead.

The Eagles tied the game up with two runs in the top of the sixth but the Mustangs came back with a run in the bottom half as Grant brought home Gaines with an rbi single.

The Eagles scored a run in the top of the seventh to tie it at 14-14 and send the game into extra innings.

With one out in the bottom of the eighth, Howard was hit by a pitch for the third straight time, Grant walked and Gutierrez blasted a line drive over the fence for the win.

Gutierrez ended up going five for five with six rbi's for the game. Grant went two for five with three rbi's and Miller went two for five with two rbi's.

Mustangs get by Pioneers, 9-5

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang varsity baseball team jumped out to a big lead over the visiting MacHi Pioneers and held on for a 9-5 win on Tuesday, April 2, to improve their record to 6 and 2 on the year.

The Mustangs led 3-0 after one as Kelly Paullus singled, stole second, went to third on a Michael McCabe single and scored as Billy Gates grounded out. Brad Adams followed with a two-out two-run homerun to left field.

They extended their lead to 6-0 after two when Josh Winters walked, Travis Bellamy singled and Stefan Matheny had an rbi double. Paullus had an rbi bunt single and McCabe had an rbi single.

The Pioneer scored single runs in the fourth and fifth, but the Mustangs came back with three more in the bottom of the fifth. Gates reached on an error. Brad Adams and Winters walked, Bellamy scored two with a single and Brian Gutierrez had a sacrifice fly to make it 9-2.

The Pioneers came back with three runs in the sixth, but the Mustangs held on for the win.

Donald Adams went four innings to pick up the win, striking out four, giving up two hits, no earned runs and no walks. Gates pitched a perfect seventh, striking out two.

Bellamy went two for three with two rbi's, Paullus went two for two and scored twice, while McCabe went two for four with an rbi. Brad Adams had a homerun and two rbi's.
