Thank You
The St. Patrick's weekend is always a big event for our community. The Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo committee would like to thank many individuals who donated either materials, their time, or equipment to make the annual St. Pat's Motor Cross Barrel Race so successful.

We would like to thank Bill Green and Teddy Britt, Roger Britt and Rusty Britt, as well as Morrow County Grain Growers, Joe McElligott and Bob Mahoney for hauling and moving dirt to and around the arena. Barry and MaryAnn Munkers donated all the gravel for the new contestant parking lot and the County and Rodeo committee completed the enhanced area behind the rodeo grounds. These donations were greatly appreciated by the Rodeo committee.

Many people volunteered their time to help set up and run the race this year. Without their support the race could not run smoothly. We would like to thank the following people for their time: Stormy and Jeff Botefuhr, Sheri Mahoney, Ken Greib, Dan and Carmen Wilson, Dale Wilson, Matt Howard, Grant Wright, Jay Papineau, John Griffith, Staci Wilson, Matt Hawkins and the Morrow County EMT for supplying medical assistance for our riders.

The sponsors this year donated money to help with awards, payouts and other supplies. These include Lexington Polaris, Lexington Auto Body, Power City Polaris, Chick Manufacturing, Bank of Eastern Oregon, Les Schwab Tire Center of Heppner, Jeff Wilson Construction, Peterson's Jewelers (trophies/batteries), and Doug's Septic. The donations and sponsorships help make the motocross so attractive and popular for contestants each year. In a small town, your support keeps fun family activities like this going.

Thank you for going that extra mile to help in our community.

Words cannot express my appreciation for the staff at the Pioneer Nursing Home. The compassion and care they gave Gladys Connor cannot be forgotten. Each one of you deserve more than a pat on the back. You are all special. I say thanks to everyone of you.

Again I say Thank You!!
Skip Connor

We would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, food and prayers that were offered during our mom's recent illness and death.

To Craig Strobel and Monika Hunter for the beautiful service and music. To the United Methodist Women for the wonderful food provided. To Pat and Trish Sweeney for their attention to details, and to our family and friends for the many hugs and words of encouragement through this very difficult time.

Thank you to everyone who attended and spoke at the memorial service. Your words confirmed what we already knew, that our mother was loved and made a difference during her time on earth. This gives us comfort.

Thank you and God Bless!
