Obituary

M. Marjorie Baker Vierson

M. Marjorie Baker Vierson, 94, of Hermiston, died on Wednesday, May 1, 2002, at the Good Shepherd Medical Center in Hermiston.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, May 11, 2002, at 1 p.m. at the Hermiston Christian Center in Hermiston. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery.

She was born on January 2, 1908, at Moses Lake, Washington, to Clyde and Ethel Henderson. In 1922, the family moved to Cashmere, Washington, where she graduated from high school. Later, they moved to Pullman, Washington, where she graduated from Washington State University in 1930.

She taught school at Kahlotus, Washington, for two years and then married E. Markham Baker of Kahlotus in September, 1932. They farmed his mother's place near Kahlotus until 1937 when they bought a farm near Lone and moved there. They farmed there until her husband's death in 1968. For several years they had spent their winters in Arizona.

In 1971 she married Earnest Vierson of Mesa, Arizona and they continued to spend the winters there and the summers in Hermiston. Mr. Vierson died in 1982. She continued to spend time in Arizona and Hermiston until 1995 when she moved to Hermiston permanently.

Marjorie had done considerable traveling. She was very active in church and was a long-time 4-H leader. She served on state church boards and state 4-H committees. She was a member of the Hermiston Christian Center and a 50-plus year member of Eastern Star.

Survivors include sons, Ronald Baker of Hermiston and Duane Baker of Pleasanton, California; daughter, Mardine Larsen of South Bend, Washington; two sisters, Vera Adler of Littleton, Colorado and Mildred Hoover of Cornelius; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and stepchildren, Jacqueline Rohrs of Chandler, Arizona and Myrlin Vierson of Omaha, Nebraska.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hermiston Christian Center, P.O. Box 779, Hermiston, Oregon 97838 or the Lone Church of Christ, P.O. Box 346 Lone, Oregon 97843.

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston is in care of arrangements.
