Mustang JVs blow past Eagles

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang JV baseball team banged out 16 hits in beating the visiting Wahtonka Eagles, 19-0, in five innings on Thursday, May 2, to improve to 7 and 1 on the year. The Mustangs play the LaGrande frosh on Friday, May 10, in a doubleheader at home beginning at 2 p.m. They will finish out the season with a home game against Pilot Rock on Monday, May 13, at 4:30 p.m.

Jode Coil and Kiel Nairns both walked to lead off the first and both came home on a wild pitch to give the Mustangs an early 2-0 lead. Chuy Elguezabal had an infield hit and later scored on a Ben Turrell fielder's choice to make it 3-0 after one.

In the second, Coil and Nairns both singled and scored on a Brian Gutierrez triple. Gutierrez scored as Luke Murray reached on an error. Elguezabal tripled to score Murray and scored as Josh Gutierrez grounded out, Turrell singled, John Franswa reached on an error, Aaron Lueck had an infield single and Coil scored two with another single to make it 10-0.

The Mustangs added two more in the third when Brian Gutierrez walked, Donald Adams reached on a fielder's choice and both scored on a Turrell single.

They put the game further out of reach in the fourth when Franswa reached on an error, Coil singled and Nairns was hit by a pitch. Murray scored two with a two-out single and Adams scored another with a single. Josh Gutierrez had an RBI single, Turrell scored two more with a double and Franswa scored another with a double to make it 19-0.

Josh Gutierrez went three innings to pick up the win, striking out four and allowing an infield single with Coil pitching the final two innings, giving up no hits and striking out four.

Turrell led the way at the plate, going three for four with five RBIs. Coil went three for four with three runs scored and two RBIs, Elguezabal went two for two, Lueck went two for four, Murray had three RBIs and Brian and Josh Gutierrez each had two RBIs.

Each Mustang had at least one hit and the defense was flawless, with no errors.

Mustang rally falls short against Condon Blue Devils

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustangs baseball team scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh, but came up one run short as they lost to the visiting Condon Blue Devils, 5-4, in Columbia Basin Conference play. The Mustangs dropped to 7 and 2 in the CBC East division and 13 and 5 overall. They tied with Condon for first place in the conference, but the Blue Devils hold the tiebreaker, having beaten the Mustangs of three times this season.

The Mustangs play a doubleheader at Weston-McEwen on Saturday, May 11, beginning at 11 a.m. and host Umatilla on Tuesday, May 14, at 4:30 p.m. to finish up the regular season.

The Blue Devils scored two runs in the top of the first, but the Mustangs came back to tie it up on Stefan Matheny's single, Michael McCabe's single, Billy Gates' RBI single and Brad Adams' RBI single.

The Blue Devils scored a run in the third and two more in the fourth and made it stand up until the seventh when the Mustangs mounted a rally.

Chuy Elguezabal walked with one out. Matheny was hit by a pitch, McCabe walked and Gates singled to score two, but they couldn't get anymore and took the loss.

Gates was two for three with three RBIs and Matheny went two for three.

WCCC ladies evening league set

According to a spokesperson, WCCC received an overwhelming positive response to the proposal of a Willow Creek Country Club ladies evening league at a meeting held last Thursday. Play days are set for Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m. and will run similar to Tuesdays (participation is not required every week). Golfers will sign up as hostesses and will be in charge of the play for the evening. The league is open to all women, 18 years of age or older, who are members of the Willow Creek Country Club.

Those interested in participating may show up Thursday evenings, beginning May 9, by 6:15 p.m., as play will start promptly at 6:30 p.m.

For more information about the evening league or Tuesday play, call Dana Reid at 676-2101 (day) or 676-5367 (evening).

Eleven golfers hit the course for a Chapman Round following the meeting. First place went to Mary Kincaid and Luvilla Sonstegard, second place to Dana Reid and Jackie Allstott, and third place to Dana Reid and Shari Stahl.

Mustangs take two from Tigers

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang baseball team had 19 hits and scored 25 runs, beating the visiting Stanfield Tigers, 11-1 and 14-3, on Saturday, May 4. Both games ended after five innings due to the 10-run rule. The wins boosted the Mustangs' Columbia Basin Conference East division record to 9 and 2 and their overall record to 15 and 5.

The Mustangs had a doubleheader at Weston-McEwen on Saturday, May 11, and a single game at home against Umatilla on Tuesday, May 14, to close out the regular season.

The Mustangs took a 3-0 lead after one in the opener as Chuy Elguezabal and Stefan Matheny walked and scored on a Brad Adams triple. Billy Gates then hit a sacrifice fly to score Adams.

The Tigers scored a run in the second but the Mustangs came back with three more in the third as Michael McCabe tripled and scored on Adams' single, Gates walked and both came home on Travis Bellamy's double.

The Mustangs scored five more in the fourth as Donald Adams walked and ended up scoring on a passed ball. Elguezabal walked, Brad Adams hit a two-out two-run homerun and Gates walked. Bellamy singled, Kelly Paullus had an RBI single and Bellamy ended up scoring on an error to make it 11-1.

Gates went the distance, giving up only an infield single, three walks and striking out 11. Brad Adams led the way at the plate, going three for three with five RBIs, with Bellamy going two for three with two RBIs. Elguezabal and Gates each scored two runs.

The Mustangs wasted little time in the second game, scoring seven runs in the first inning. Elguezabal walked, Matheny tripled, McCabe hit a homerun, Brad Adams walked, Bellamy was hit by a pitch and Paullus moved both runners up with a sacrifice bunt. Josh Winters was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Brian Gutierrez had an RBI single, Elguezabal forced in a run by getting hit by a pitch, Matheny had an RBI single and another run scored as McCabe reached on an error.

In the second, Gates doubled and Bellamy homered to right field. Paullus, Winters and Gutierrez each single, Elguezabal reached on a fielder's choice, McCabe forced in a run with a walk and Adams cleared the bases with a double to make it 13-0.

The Tigers scored two runs in the third but the Mustangs came back with a run in the fourth as Matheny doubled and scored on McCabe's single.

Matheny picked up the win on the mound, giving the distance, giving up three hits and two walks, while striking out four. He also led the way at the plate, going three for three with two RBIs.

McCabe went two for three with five RBIs. Gutierrez went two for two, scored twice and had an RBI. Bellamy scored two runs and had two RBIs, Adams had three RBIs and Elguezabal scored two runs.
