istrative staff at Pioneer Memorial Hospital became our extended family. For their exceptional care and love for Chuck and his family, we extend a grateful thank you.

Thank you, Dr. Datta and Dr. Berretta for the quality care and concern for Chuck during his stay in the hospital. The phone call was very comforting, Dr. Datta. Thank you.

Our gratitude and thanks are also given to the Home Health services provided by Robanai, Donna and Molly, and to the Good Neighbor Club in lone for providing the wonderful family dinner.

Our love and a sincere thank you for everything.

We would like to thank everyone that contributed to the baked food sale and a special thanks to Judy and Debbie for planning and organizing the sale. Thanks also to the Monday Night Bunco gals and Joy Krein and the Methodist Church ladies for all your help. The entire community has been very supportive. We are overwhelmed with everyone's generosity and thoughtfulness.

We want to extend our thanks again to the "Chicken on the Fence" pinochle group and to Flo and Tracy for the benefit held last month. It was great!

To the faithful chauffeurs, Nelson, Skip and Buck, thanks a bunch for taking the time to help with the daily and weekly trips to Walla Walla.

Last, but not least, we want to give a big thank you to our family - Deann and Mike, Greg and Jodi, Penny and Doug, Eric and Irene and our grandchildren for the special "surprise" 40th wedding anniversary party. We were totally delighted and it was so special to have so many thoughtful friends and family attend to help us celebrate. To those people that could not attend, but sent cards and well wishes, we wish you could have been there. We missed you and you missed a beautiful party.

Thanks again to each and every person for the many deeds of kindness.
