My dear classes 60, 61, 62:
 Thank you for the great honor of being remembered.
 So grand to speak to so many personally and know that some of you stood back believing I wouldn't remember you. Have never forgotten anyone I ever taught because that made my life beautiful.
 Please know that the year was 1949 when I taught the first kindergarten with the parents paying $10 a month and that included a small drink of juice!
 My pay was $96 a month to pay my babysitter for one year old Leslee - I didn't know the Jay Cettes were going to pay me as I volunteered free!
 Your book shows me how very well all have done and I'm sure it is because of my great and grand start I gave you!
 Come see me and chat. I get lonesome.
 Loving all of you,
 Inez Meador Miller
