

We would like to thank everyone who responded to the lightning fire Wednesday night, on Highway 74. To Lone, Arlington, Heppner, Boardman and Irrigon Fire depts. To all those volunteers who would have had a lot more fun watching the full moon from the comfort of their porches, we thank you. A special thank you to Greg Rietmann, Justin Miller, Joe Rietmann and Jerry Rietmann, who helped secure our home and pump station.

As for Friday afternoon's flare-up, extreme gratitude to our neighbors, Ron and Judy Harris (specifically Judy's nose), and Dick and Joanne Goodhead for coming to the rescue. To Jeff Key for calling 911 from the line box on the highway, after restoring phone service from Wednesday night's fire. To Lone and Irrigon Fire depts., and to Arlington's, who just happened to be going by our house at the right time. To the many people who came in off the highway to help, our sincere appreciation. Without you, we may not have had a house in which to sit to write this thank you. (And a hug to Joanne for "babysitting".) Buzz and Jeanette Logan

Our family greatly appreciates the remarkable efforts of area firefighters and volunteers at the recent fire on our farm. We deeply appreciate the help of: Arlington, Boardman, Heppner, Hermiston, Lone, Irrigon, Pendleton and Stanfield fire departments, as well as Waste Management, Department of Transportation, Gilliam County Sheriff's Department and Gilliam County Road Department. We don't know what we would have done without your dedication and expertise.
