Some Do/Some Don't Ecumenical golf scramble upcoming

Those looking for a different type of golf event are invited to sign up for the Some Do/Some Don't Ecumenical golf scramble to be held Sunday, Oct. 6. It is a quick nine-hole event, but scores only count on five of the holes. Players won't know which five count until finished. Also, to make it a bit more challenging, entries will be drawn from a hat to make up the teams.

Cost to enter is $15 per person. There will be a putting contest also, with the winner getting half the pot of money. Registration starts at 12:30 p.m., with tee-off at 1 p.m. The event is sponsored by Valby Lutheran Church of Ione, Hope Lutheran Church of Heppner and All Saints Episcopal Church of Heppner.

Winners will be announced and a potluck dinner open to everyone will start at about 3:30 p.m. The event and potluck are open to anyone who wants to come. Any proceeds that are raised will go to the three churches' high school youth group, which is open to anyone in grades nine-12.

55th annual Oregon Make it Yourself with Wool Contest nearing

The 55th annual "Oregon Make it Yourself with Wool" contest is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Hood River Inn, in Hood River.

The contest is open to all ages, with the competition broke down into four categories. The categories include: Preteen (12 and under), Junior (13-16), Senior (17-24) and Adult. Contestants must construct and model their garments made of 100 percent wool fabric or yarns (minimum of 60 percent wool or specialty wool fibers). Winners in the junior and senior categories will receive a trip to Renaissance Hotel in Washington D.C. to compete in the "National Make it Yourself with Wool" competition, Feb. 6-8, 2003.

Contestants must select appropriate style garment and coordinate the fabric with the garment design. Two other categories, Made for Others and Fashion Design/Apparel, are available for submissions.

Entry forms must be submitted to the program director by Friday, Nov. 22, to compete in this year's contest. Entry forms and contest details may be obtained from the Extension Office, the Oregon Sheep Growers Association (www.oregonsheep.com), or the program director, Maureen Krebs. Krebs can be reached at 422-7548 or by email at eatlamb@centurytel.net.
