

Mustang JVs fall short against Hermiston

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang JV football team came up short against the visiting Hermiston Frosh, 35-26, on Monday, Oct. 7, to drop their record to 3 and 1 on the year. The Mustangs' next game will be at home against the Pilot Rock JVs on Monday, Oct. 14 at 5 p.m.

The Mustangs scored first on a five-yard run by Aaron Delveaux and took a 6-0 lead after one.

The Bulldogs came back with two touchdowns in the second quarter to take a 14-6 lead at halftime.

The Mustangs came back in the third, getting a 15-yard gain on a reverse by Cody Walton; Matt Kenny gained eight yards; and Walton ran for eight more to set up a seven-yard touchdown run. The two-point conversion failed, so Hermiston still led, 14-12.

The Bulldogs came right back with a touchdown later in the third and another in the fourth to extend their lead to 28-12.

On the Mustangs' next drive, a Walton 15-yard run and an eight-yard run by Delveaux set up a 17-yard touchdown pass from Matthew Van Cleave to Brandon Seitz, who made a juggling catch. The conversion pass failed, so the Mustangs trailed 28-18 with 5:01 left.

Mikel Britt recovered a Bulldog fumble on their first play, but the Mustangs were unable to move the ball and Hermiston scored another touchdown to ice the game with 2:45 left.

The Mustangs didn't give up though as Kenny hit Seitz for a 26-yard gain, ran for 13 yards, then went 17 more for a touchdown. Aaron Griffith caught the conversion pass from Kenny to close the gap to 35-26.

The Mustangs got the ball back on the kickoff as Griffith stripped the ball, which was recovered by Peter Geer, but they were unable to move the ball.
