"Heppner, the place to be in 2003" was the Town and Country Banquet and Chamber luncheon theme this year. Congratulations to the Chamber award recipients and to all honored guests.

Many thanks to the Elks, Roger and crew, and the McCabe meat slicers for providing a great facility and food; to the planning committee: Bill Broderick, Janet Greenup, Larry Mills, Brenda Sherrell and Barbara Hayes; to the selection committee chaired by Bill Kuhn and to the presenters; to Peterson Jewelers for the jewelry drawing; to the Garden Club for decorations; to the Heppner Senior Class for serving; to Columbia Basin for the sound system; to Jerry Breazeale, who recommended the speaker; to CenturyTel who gave a generous donation toward the evening; and to all who participated in the gun raffle drawing, a Chamber non-dues income project. Thanks also to the Willow Valley Service Club, Joanne Tingue, George Nairns, and photographer Pat Edmondson during the luncheon.

Dear Friends,
 I am lucky beyond belief! Lucky that my cancer was caught early and that I am recovering well from surgery. And I'm lucky that so many have expressed concern and have delivered prayer on my behalf. Thank you all!

Then, when I thought my cup was already overflowing, the Chamber of Commerce selected me "Educator of the Year". It's an honor I'll treasure always. But teaching your children at HES has been my privilege and my great pleasure. Thank you for being such a supportive community.
