Having cancer has been the most humbling experience of my life. I am humbled by the strength and sheer numbers I see everyday at the cancer center. I always leave there feeling lucky to be as healthy as I am. But mostly I have been humbled by the community of Heppner. There are not words to properly thank you all. It started almost the day I was diagnosed with cards and flowers and has finally come to the dinner on Thursday. There have been times in my life when I wondered why I stayed in Heppner. But then I get reminders of why we all do. I don't think there can be a community anywhere that has more kindhearted and generous people than we do. That's why we stay and raise our kids here. So they can know and love the same people we have grown up with. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.
