CARD OF THANKS

The Morrow County Health District staff and future patients would like to thank Mrs. Diana Starr of Ione for her generous purchase and donation of a sleeper chair to the hospital. This donation is made in memory of her late husband, Charles "Chuck" Starr. Mrs. Starr spent many long days and nights in the hospital during her late husband's extended illness. It then became very important for her to make other patients' and family members' stay more comfortable.
The sleeper chair is actually a hide-a-bed that can be quickly and easily moved from room to room. Parents staying with a child can utilize the chair, as well as adult children staying at the side of an elderly parent or one spouse staying with the other during an extended illness. This thoughtful donation will be greatly appreciated by all that have the opportunity to benefit from its use.

The Willow Valley Service Club thanks the following persons for helping to make the American Red Cross blood drive on March 10 successful: high school students and adviser for clearing and resetting the meeting room at St. Patrick's Senior Center; the individuals who volunteered time and cookies to fill the various tasks; and, especially, all of you in the community who donated blood - or tried to. The ARC assigned pint goal

I'm extremely thankful and grateful to my family and friends who called, sent cards and flowers, inquired about my health, visited me while I was in the hospital and prayed for me. I appreciate each and every one of you more than you will ever know. I know the prayers worked because I am getting stronger every day. I am so thankful for our hospital and our doctors, and I am especially thankful for the wonderful community of Heppner. It is a good place to live and I love living here.

There are angels among us, namely Robanai Disque, Molly Rhea, Sue Thompson, Carl Lauritsen, Rusty Estes, Ken Bailey, Steve Rhea, Delia Robinson, Dr. Berretta, Linn Young, Michelle Schwarzin, Evelyn Carroll and all the wonderful caring aides and nurses of Pioneer Memorial Hospital. I appreciate everything you did for me and I will always remember how professional and caring you were to me, especially everyone who left the auction to attend to my needs.

I especially appreciate everyone who gave up their evening to support Bob while I was in the ER. Thank you for just being there.

I would also like to thank Mike, Nicole, Jaiden, and my husband Bob for taking such good care of me after I got home.
