CARD OF THANKS

Words seem so inadequate and "Thank You" not nearly enough to express the gratitude and love shown the evening of April 21, 2003 for our troops and their families. The "Freedom Parade" exemplified all that we hoped it would be and so much more because of all of the wonderful people who stepped up to the plate and made it happen. It was a wonderful experience of everyone working together, just jumping in and doing what needed to be done, almost before they were asked. Everyone was so helpful and made it so easy.

We are especially thankful for the City Council's approval and direction, for Verlin Denton, Morrow County Sheriff and his deputies for taking care of the traffic control, Suzanne Jepsen for organizing the music, Tom Wolff and Dale Bates for setting up the sound system, Jannie Allen for her posters and for making the yellow bows for the trees on Main Street, Cliff Green for taking care of the parade lineup, for David Allen, Morrow County, DA. who did a fantastic job as our MC, for Keith Brudevold, Methodist Minister for his wonderful voice and leading us in the "Navy Anthem" as a prayer, Craig Canham for taking pictures from "the Cherry Picker" and tying the yellow ribbons on top of the tree, to Wendy Appleton for her singing students and her help in organizing the "Community Band", to Ralph and Sally Walker for the balloons that almost made it to the angels, to Sandy Matthews for her incredible photos, and to Darren Van Cleave and Luke Murray for their inspirational and heart-warming rendition of "Echo Taps" on their trumpets.

A special thanks to all the volunteers who will go unnamed, but were very important in helping make this parade a reality. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts to everyone who participated, watched, walked, or were there in spirit. We appreciate all of you and know the boys and their families lies will never forget the evening of April 21, 2003.

Hugs,

I would like to thank everyone for their cards, phone calls, flowers, e-mails, food, prayers and thoughtfulness during my recent surgery. Your concerns and prayers will give me strength as I begin chemotherapy. A special appreciation for those who have gone before me; you have given me courage and determination.

God bless everyone,
Marcia Kemp
