Elks hold soccer skills contest

Dave George, (right) of the Heppner Elks Lodge watches as Tyler Robinson lines up for a shot at the soccer goal Sunday at the football field in Heppner. Robinson was one of the local kids participating in the Elks first soccer skills days. In the seven and under age group first place went to Ross Cutsforth and second place Jason Kendrick. In the eight to nine Garrett Gibbs was first and Larissa Gray second. In the 10-11 age group Tyler Robinson was first and Drew Johnson second. Just like the Elk's Hoop Shoot basketball contest first place finishers will advance to district.

Local students inducted into National Honor Roll

Sixteen students in Morrow County were inducted into the 2002-03 edition of the National Honor Roll. Students must maintain a B or better average to be eligible for listing.

Students listed were: Emily Bergstrom, Heppner, Heppner High School; Justin Botefuhr, Heppner, HHS; Tyler Boyer, Lexington, HHS; Kassy Gaines, Heppner, HHS; Brian Haguewood, Heppner, HHS; Stefanie Hanson, Heppner, HHS; Nicholas Christman, Ione, Ione High School; Sheena Christman, Ione, IHS; Barbara Holland, Ione, IHS; Diana McElligott, Ione, IHS; Caitlin Orem, Ione, IHS;

Michael Radie, Ione, IHS; Kayleen Vosberg, Ione, IHS; Becki McNamee, Irrigon; Riverside High School; Brice Studer, Irrigon, RHS; and Brandon Wedding, Irrigon, RHS.

The National Honor Roll offers several benefits which can contribute to the success of its student members. By taking advantage of NHR's College Admissions Notification Service, high school inductees can notify the admissions offices of as many schools as they wish that they have been inducted into the National Honor Roll and that they are interested in obtaining information about those college. (A copy of the student's biography and photograph, when published is sent to the college along with that letter). High school inductees receive an application for one of the 25, $1000 Community Contributions Scholarships which are awarded annually by the Educational Research Center of America. These scholarships are awarded to students who have made an extraordinary contribution to their communities and/or schools.
