2003 Pennant Bearers introduced

The Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo has three pennant bearers this year.

MaKayla Anderson is the 13-year-old daughter of Larry and Marcia Anderson of Boardman. She has an older sister Heather, and a younger sister, Ashley. MaKayla attends Columbia Middle School in Irrigon where she is an honor roll student.

MaKayla is active in 4-H where she shows market steers, and is in sewing. She also has plans on entering the calf riding at the rodeo this year. She will be riding her horse, Summer, for the parades this fall.

MaKayla has enjoyed her year with the court and is looking forward to the hometown fair and rodeo this year.

Emily Bergstrom is the daughter of Hal and Rita Bergstrom of Heppner. She is 15 years old and has an 18-year-old brother, Adam. Emily will be a junior this fall at Heppner High School. She is active in cooking, sewing and horse 4-H, has been in 4-H for five years.

Emily loves to ride her chestnut half-Morgan, half-Quarter Horse named Penny.

Emily has loved being a pennant bearer for this year's fair and rodeo.

the daughter of Kevin and Tracie Kennedy, and Tami Kennedy of Boardman. Her sister, Lexi, is currently a Princess this year.

Amanda is an eighth grader at Columbia Middle School in Irrigon. School is very important to her, where she maintains a 4.0 GPA. Her school activities include playing volleyball and basketball and she is a representative on student council. After school she enjoys working with her horse Trooper and showing lambs.

Amanda has enjoyed representing the fair and rodeo.
