Mustangs beat Huskies to clinch CBC

By Rick Paullus

A 44-6 win over the Sherman County Huskies on Friday, Oct. 24 in Moro clinched the fifth straight Columbia Basin Conference title for the Heppner Mustangs. The third-ranked Mustangs, now 8 and 0 on the year; will be at home on Friday, Oct. 31 at 7 p.m. to close out the regular season before hosting the first round of the state playoffs. The Mustangs will play the winner of the Vernonia-Knapka game to be held on Friday.

The Huskies had the ball first and were forced to punt as the Mustangs defense allowed nothing. The Mustangs couldn't move the ball and were forced to punt, but the defense stepped-up again forcing a fourth down for the Huskies. A bad snap on the punt gave the ball to the Mustangs at the Huskies' 33-yard line. Tyler Boyer broke free for 29 yards to the four where Kyler Lovgren took it in for the touchdown. Lovgren kicked the extra point to make it 7-0 midway through the first quarter.

The Mustangs defense held again as they got the ball back at their 41-yard line and went back to work. Chuy Elguezabal ran for five, Lovgren broke free for 34 yards, Boyer ran twice for six yards and Elguezabal hit Justin Botefuhr for a 14-yard touchdown. Elguezabal ran in the two-point conversion to make it 15-0 with 3:10 left in the first quarter.

Forcing another punt, another bad snap gave the Mustangs the ball at the Sherman County 45-yard line as the first quarter ended.

Elguezabal hit Botefuhr for a 16-yard gain and then ran for five yards. Boyer ran for four yards, Lovgren went 18 yards to the four where Boyer took it in for the touchdown. Lovgren kicked the extra point to make it 22-0 early in the second quarter.

The Huskies took the kick-off and put together a drive getting inside the Mustangs 25-yard line, but Elguezabal picked off a pass and went 81 yards for the touchdown. The pass on the conversion attempt failed, but the Mustangs led 28-0 midway through the second quarter.

The teams traded punts before the Huskies drove down the field scoring their touchdown with 25 seconds left before halftime. The conversion attempt failed so the Mustangs took a 28-6 lead at the half.

Elguezabal took the second half kick-off 55 yards to the 26-yard line to give the Mustangs great field position. Boyer ran for four, Elguezabal for two, Lovgren for three and on fourth down Boyer ran for seven yards to the ten where he took it in for a touchdown. Elguezabal hit Lovgren in the end zone for the two-point conversion to make it 36-6 early in the third quarter.

The Huskies then took the ball and drove down the field and were about to score, but the defense held on fourth down at the three-yard line. Lovgren ran twice for 11 yards, Elguezabal hit Brandon Seitz for 46 yards and after a false start, Boyer ran for 13 yards, but holding penalty and delay of game brought up a third and twenty-one. Elguezabal then hit Lovgren for a 31-yard gain and a first down at the 18-yard line as the third quarter ran out. Elguezabal ran for seven yards and Boyer took it in from 11 yards out for his third touchdown of the game. Elguezabal hit Boyer for the two-point conversion to make it 44-6 early in the fourth.

The rest of the fourth quarter the teams traded punts although the Mustangs had a Boyer 32-yard touchdown run called back by penalty.

The Mustangs were flagged 12 times for 129 yards for the game, while the Huskies had just four penalties for 20 yards.

Boyer led the defense with 20 defensive points. Elguezabal added 18 points and Zack Skaggs added 17 points. Aaron Delveaux, Matt Kenny and Peter Geer each had 12 points. Brian Haguwood and Brian Smith each had 11 points and Botefuhr had 10 points.

Boyer also led the offense with 110 yards rushing on 17 carries, with Lovgren rushing seven times for 69
