Judith Elizabeth "Judy" Monahan

Judith Elizabeth "Judy" Monahan, 60, a computer technology and systems management expert, of Eugene, died Monday, April 19, 2004, of cancer.

Rosary was held April 23 at Musgrove Family Mortuary in Eugene. A funeral was held April 24 at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Eugene. A graveside service and burial was held April 26 at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

She was born Judith Elizabeth Baran on March 12, 1944, at Buffalo, N.Y. She graduated from the University of Buffalo and lived in Washington, D.C. from 1968 until 1993 and in Eugene from 1993 until her death.

She married J. Dominic Monahan of Heppner on Aug. 2, 1969, at Washington, D.C.

Her professional life was centered around computer technology and systems management. She held positions with the Senate, MCI/Systemhouse and most recently as an AIRS manager for Lane County.

She was said to be a role model for all who knew her. She was a devoted and energetic mother to her five children and was a doting grandmother.

She was a talented seamstress and craftsperson who spent years designing and constructing costumes for community and children's theater productions in Washington, D.C. She volunteered countless hours organizing community and charitable events including Friendship House Market Day, Holy Trinity Elementary School festivals, Christ Church Child Center auctions and Marist High School Peace and Justice Day. She loved books, music, theater and movies.

Survivors include her husband, J. Dominic Monahan of Eugene; her children, son, J. Michael Monahan II, and wife, Joy Lyu, of New Orleans; daughter, Amy Reischauer and husband, Pete, of Seattle; son, Chris Monahan of Seattle; son, Matt Monahan of Seattle; and daughter, Melissa Monahan of Los Angeles; grandchildren, J.D. Monahan II and Emily Reischauer; and her brothers, Daniel Baran and Richard Baran.

Memorial contributions may be made to Evergreen Healthcare Foundation, Hospice Services, 12910 Totem Lake Blvd. N.E., No. 200, Kirkland, WA 98034, or to the American Cancer Society, 2350 Oakmont way, Suite 200, Eugene, OR 97401.

Musgrove Family Mortuary, 1152 Olive Street, Eugene, is in charge of arrangements.

Speak up for a child.

Each year, nearly 300,000 children end up in court. They have committed no crime, but have been abused and neglected - the forgotten victims of family crisis. It is up to a judge to decide where they will spend their future.

You can help these children have a chance to live in safe, permanent homes. You can volunteer to be a child's voice in court.

There's no pay, no legal background required. Speak Up For A Child. Give your time and support today.
