Meet the MC Fair and OTPR pennant bearers

MaKayla Anderson is the 14-year-old daughter of Larry and Marcia Anderson of Boardman. She is back again, proud to promote Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo as a Pennant Bearer at parades, rodeos and fairs all across Oregon. She enjoyed this experience last year and this year's experience has even been better. MaKayla, has a 12-year-old sister, Ashley, who has been a great helper in getting her horse ready. MaKayla rides her eight-year-old quarter horse mare, Summer.

MaKayla is an eighth grader at Columbia Middle School in Irrigon. She is an active fifth year 4-H member. Even though MaKayla has been kept busy as a pennant bearer, she still has had time to prepare a market steer for this year's fair. MaKayla is a member of the Boardman Desert Pegasus 4-H Horse Group where she competes in Western and English Equitation classes. MaKayla also excels in sewing skills where she has won many honors over the years. MaKayla also participates in the 4-H creative arts projects.

MaKayla thanks all of the sponsors who have made this year's experience so successful.

Amanda Kennedy is the 14-year-old daughter of Kevin and Tracie Kennedy, and Tami Kennedy of Boardman. She has spent this summer serving as a Pennant Bearer for the Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo.

Amanda just finished eighth grade at Columbia Middle School where she maintained a 4.0 GPA. She is also very active in sports, participating in volleyball and basketball.

In the years past she has been active in 4-H raising lambs and cooking.

Amanda especially enjoys getting out into the community and talking to people.

She says she has had fun this summer with her horse, Trooper, and her sister, OTPR Queen Lexi, traveling all over the state of Oregon. "It's been so much fun going to other rodeos and parades advertising for our fair and rodeo," says Amanda. "I hope you can come and enjoy our Fair and Rodeo."
