Students named to UO deans' lists

More than 1900-plus University of Oregon students have been named to the deans' lists for scholastic achievement during sprint term of the 2003-2004 school year, according to Anne Leavitt, vice president for student affairs and dean of students.

UO deans' lists are compiled for fall, winter and spring terms during each school year. All undergraduate and post baccalaureate students, including National Student Exchange students, are eligible.

To qualify for the lists, students must be in good academic standing and must have completed 12 or more graded credits for the term. The required minimum grade-point average is 3.75 on a scale having 4.0 as a straight-A average.

Altogether, 1963 students- out of 14,504 undergraduate and post baccalaureate students- made spring term 2004 deans' lists for their respective UO school or college.

Local students included on the deans' lists are: Johnathan Thomas Bennett, of Heppner, a sophomore political science major; and Geoffrey Ellsworth Carnine, of Boardman, a junior sociology major.

St. Patrick's Senior Center news

Volunteers from Heppner Christian Church are hosts for the senior meal on Aug. 18. The menu is chicken nuggets, fries, peas and carrots, fresh fruit, cornbread and pudding. Entertainment during the meal will be the Shamrockettes, a recently organized group who performed at the City Park during Celebrate Heppner festivities.

The regularly scheduled board meeting will be called to order at 12 noon in the Center office on Aug. 18.

Bus rides to and from the fairgrounds will be scheduled on Senior Citizens' Day. Those needing rides will help facilitate the service by letting the Center office know.
