CARD OF THANKS
I would like to say a special "thank you" to some wonderful people that have been so very kind and helpful to my family. I don't know what we would have done without their help. Thank you to Virginia and Lyle Peck and Dorothy Jackson. Also, "thank you" to Allen, Amelia and Sara Peck for the work they did.

We wish to thank all of the neighbors and the Ione Rural Fire Dept. for responding to our fire. It was greatly appreciated.

It was a very warming (pardon the pun) experience to see all the people show up in our time of need during the Eightmile fire. The amount of effort was amazing. The fire fighting organizations, from Heppner, Ione, Condon, and the BLM were fabulous in execution, and use of their equipment.

Our local farmer contingent was also very much commended. Everything from a shovel to a water tanker was here in a very timely fashion. As everyone knows, this place is about as far away as any from the fire fighting base.

The 911 staff did an excellent job referring information to the fire boss, and he sent the troops where needed. Not knowing the origin of the fire is somewhat concerning, but nothing of great value was lost. It could have been much worse. It had to be on a heat advisory day!

Thank you!
On behalf of the PTC,
Kay Fowler
