CARD OF THANKS

I wish to extend a thank you to Columbia Basin Electric Co-Op for providing assistance in the form of machinery and manpower to help me repair the broken ARES high frequency radio antenna located at the Morrow County Sheriff's Office. With their helpful community spirit, this repair was accomplished easily. Special thanks to Lee Winters, Jan MacDonald, Bob (Mac) MacDonald, Archie Ball and Slater Mitchell.

To the Businesses, Chamber of Commerce and Residents of Heppner:

I came here to live in July of this year. I live in St. Patrick's Senior Center. I find the town extremely friendly and helpful - so much better than the City of Portland. The young teens are just as outstanding as the children and adults.

I was amazed that such a small community would take the time and the effort of putting together a neat basket for newcomers. This depicts the same result that other, larger communities try to achieve with a "Welcome Wagon" which is handled by a paid hostess. I am enjoying these items more since they were given from the heart.
Thank you, Heppner!
