

Ponies take win from Echo Cougars

By Kim Cutsforth

The B team won their match in two games playing confidently and efficiently. The scores were 25-6 and 25-7.

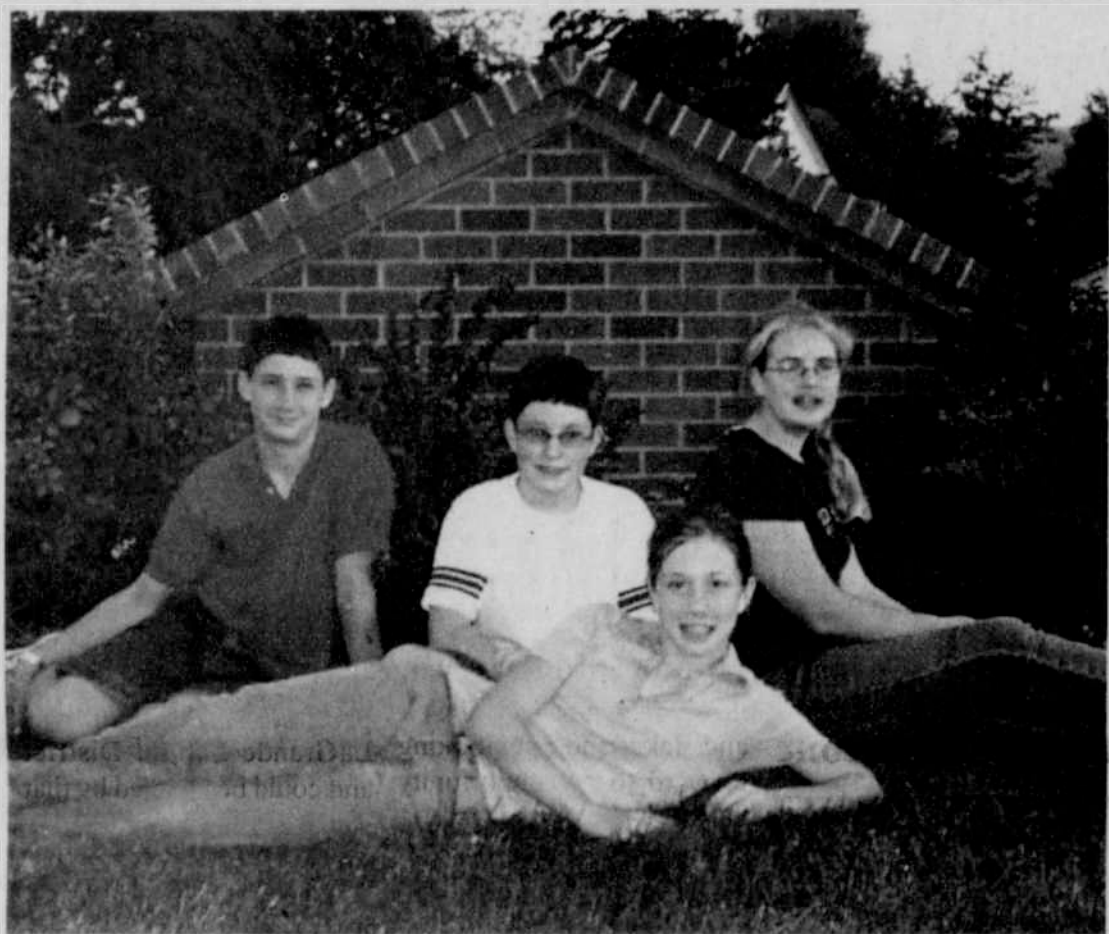

The A team played similarly. Using great teamwork with some excellent serving and volleys, they won their match in two games without pressure. Their scores were 25-7 and 25-15.

The Ponies play A, B and C teams against Athena at the Heppner Elementary School gym at 3 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 22. The teams will then split up for their season ending tournaments Saturday, Oct. 23. The A team will play at home at the high school beginning at 10 a.m. and the B team will play in Athena-Weston.

Shenanigans to give free concert in Heppner

On Thursday night, locally known fiddlers, will Oct. 28, at 7:00 p.m., give a concert at the Shenanigans, a group of Heppner Elementary School gym. Shenanigans will be performing some of the new tunes they learned on their recent summer trip to Ireland, as well as other favorite selections. To go along with the music, there will be a Power Point picture presentation created by Alex Carlson showing highlights of their two-week trip.

This talented group of 12 and 13 year olds, under the direction of Peg Willis of Pendleton, play not only their fiddles, but between them, they also perform on string bass, guitar, mandolin, penny whistle, Canadian spoons and keyboard. Brynna Rust also performs as vocalist for the group.

The concert is free of charge. Shenanigans is giving this program as a way of showing their appreciation to the many people that helped them earn their way to music school in Ireland. If you have any questions, you may contact Eric Jepsen at 676-5244.
