Eights grade Ponies beat Columbia in overtime

By Larry Palmer

The eighth grade Ponies took on the Knights of Columbia in the tip off for both teams. The Ponies dominated the first half, but the Knights came back in the second half and tied the game late in the fourth quarter and even took a one-point lead. Some clutch free throw shooting tied the game and sent it into overtime.

It was a real nail bitter, but the Ponies were able to pull it off in a 34 to 30 win and the Knights were settled to rust.
