CARD OF THANKS

In this season of Thanksgiving (even if you read this after Thanksgiving Day), I find that I want to publicly give thanks to:

1. The God whom I love and serve for giving me the ability to do my job, for the many ways in which He has made known His presence and giving me peace when I needed it the most.

2. Lucy Veliz, Patti Burres, Laura Clark, and Pat and Ronda Meagher, for the entire behind-the-scenes work you did for me. Also to all of the kids who participated in the Watermelon Festival Parade. All of your work and actions helped buoy up my spirits and helped me know that I was not alone.

3. The people of Morrow County who not only gave me words of support and encouragement, but most important of all, your vote. I humbly accept your vote of confidence and promise to do my best to live up to that confidence.

4. My husband David, who in so many ways too numerous to mention continues to show his love and support.

I am, indeed, a blessed woman.

Thanks again,
Charlotte S. Gray

Thank you, Kay and Mike Proctor for the great going-away party and to all our friends who stopped by to wish us well.

The American Legion Post No. 87 would like to thank Bob Jepsen for the great job he has done in the past three years with the program at the Veterans' Park on Veterans' Day. He not only recognizes the fallen veterans, but us veterans still living.

Commander Ed Baker

Thank You, all participants, for making "Mr. Bill's Trivia Show" a success in Heppner on November 20! We were overwhelmed and thrilled to have so many people at the party. Three teams were even sponsored by out-of-towners who often join their local relatives and friends for Heppner's "fun functions."

We appreciated receiving so many raffle prizes from the local businesses (always so willing to help)! We were pleasantly surprised to receive miscellaneous cash donations at the party. The team that won top bragging rights chose to donate their prizes back, a bonus to the cause.

A first event is bound to hold a few surprises or glitches, but we hope that every team's fun at its table made the night a huge, amusing success for every participant.

The Ione School Board would like to express a heartfelt thanks to the members of the Ione community, students, and teachers who helped with the drainage project at the school. Your help saved us over $40,000 that can now be utilized for instruction rather than building repairs and legal costs. You have also demonstrated to our children the positive values of creative problem solving and community commitment.

Thanks to all those who donated time, equipment, food and energy to making this a most successful and positive project: Howard Mullens; Adrian Miranda; John and Brenna Rietmann; Anne Morter; Tom and Anne Bedortha; Gregg Rietmann; Steve Schaber; Ken Klinger; Ron Hague-wood; Steve Steward; Barb and Adam Collin; Linda and Duane Neiffer; Virgil Morgan; Dustin Haguewood; Kevin Haguewood; Arlynda Gates; Dean Robinson; Josh Brown-ing; Ron Haguewood; Bill Jepsen; Jerry Rietmann; Shad-ow Kendrick; Tom Shear; Dar-riw and Henry Padburg; Joe, Donna, Mary and Emily Riet-mann; Jim Raible; Joel Peterson; Steve and Caleb Dumler; Bryn Browning; Ryan Rudolf; Michelle Stone; Dale and Karen Holland; Craig Holland; Bink Ramos; Blas Elguezabal; Gina Jepsen; Conrad Tworek; Kay Alldritt; Jim Swanson; Keith Rea; Tim Holtz; Eric Orem; Arthur Eckstrom; Will-iam Bergstrom; Bruce Mc-
