Cardinal JV boys lose to Spray

By Marie Key

Ione traveled to Spray on Tuesday, Dec. 14 and lost by seven points, 48-55.

Dan Long led the team with 22 points.

Others contributing were Justin Archer, 10 points; Alan Rietmann, eight points; Paul Hams and Kyle Palmateer, two points each; and Cody Keisling and Kip Krebs, one point each.

Coach Jim Swanson stated, "Dan Long had a powerful game with 22 points and 10 rebounds. Justin Archer followed with 10 points and nine assists, but when you only make three for 20 foul shots, you can't win any games. The team played great and worked hard. If they could have made a few more of the foul shots, we would have won."

He also said, "Spray always has a fast and a good shooting team. They hit a lot of three pointers and it is a hard place to play. Our 11 kids are improving every game and they all play a lot of minutes. That's what JV is about."

Cardinal JV boys lose to Enterprise

By Marie Key

In their first game of Ione's annual Basketball Bonanza, the JV boys lost to Enterprise 50-37 on Friday, Dec. 3.

Alan Rietmann led the Cardinals with 10 points. Others contributing were Paul Hams, six points; Taylor McElligott, five points; Cody Keisling, Kyle Palmateer and Dan Long, two points each.

Coach Jim Swanson said, "We have a pretty young group of boys and they were a little tight at first. We shot the ball a lot, but nothing fell until the second half. Then we played with them, but when you spot them 20 plus points in the first half, it was hard to catch up. I was really proud of how they played hard and had fun."

Ione JV boys defeated by Umatilla

By Marie Key

In their second game of Ione's Basketball Bonanza, Saturday, Dec. 4, the JV boys were defeated by Umatilla 65-36.

Dan Long led the team with 13 points. Others contributing were Alan Rietmann, eight points; Paul Hams, six points; Kip Krebs, four points; Kyle Palmateer, three points; and Justin Archer with two points.

Coach Jim Swanson said, "We were playing against a very good aggressive 2A school. We were pretty outmatched. I was very proud of our kids for their hard work."

HHS Booster Club elects 2005 officers

The Heppner High School Booster Club held its December meeting on Dec. 8 at the school.

Officers for 2005 were elected with: Ron Bowman- president; Reica Herbison- vice president; Renee Yocom- secretary; and Gayle Gutierrez-treasurer.

Final figures on the auction were $15,523.50 profit. Rental fees for the Elk's lodge for next year were discussed.

The Booster Club received notes of appreciation from the Lost River football team and the Shamrockettes for donations.

The following delegations presented requests to the club:

-Baseball coach Rick Paullus wants the Booster Club to consider purchasing 22 jackets for the team. Leftover varsity jackets will go to JV players. Greg Grant will check to see where baseball is on the uniform rotation and report back.

-The music department requested Booster Club money for hooded sweatshirts and t-shirts. The club approved $500 to be put in the HS Band account toward the shirts. The shirts will belong to the school and any band/choir student who wishes to keep their sweatshirt or t-shirt will have to pay for their own.

-The junior high volleyball team purchased some travel t-shirts and Terri Gentry requested funds to help pay for them. It was agreed to put $166.97 into the Wild Horse Club account to cover that purchase.

In old business: Bill Kuhn is working on the tax-id project.

The by-law committee is planning on meeting and getting copies of other by-laws to use as example of how to put the Club's together.

The junior class has $425 worth of merchandise inventory left over from the Snack Shack and are willing to take $200 for it. It was decided to pay the Junior Class the $200. It was agreed to order supplies to
