"Lottery profits help pay teachers' salaries."

FUNDED SINCE: 1995

Jerel Betz, Science Teacher, Leslie Middle School

Oregonians value education, which is why we consistently make choices to support Oregon's schools - from donating their own time and money to fund individual projects to allocating Lottery profits to K-12 education. In 1995, Oregonians passed a constitutional amendment that allows Lottery profits to help fund public education. As a result, more than $220 million in

Lottery profits is allocated to Oregon's schools this year. The money helps pay teachers' salaries, build and repair buildings, buy textbooks and fund other essential services. Lottery games have generated over $4 billion for education, economic development, state parks and watershed enhancement since 1985. itdoesgoodthings.org

20 Years of Doing Good Things

Lottery games are based on chance and should be played for entertainment only.
