CARD OF THANKS

The family of Pat Anderson would like to thank all of our friends and family for the prayers, cards, phone calls, visits and delicious food shared with us during this sad time. We also thank you for all the memorial contributions given, lovely flowers and food provided for the meal after the service. Your caring kindness does make a difference in making this time easier for us. We are fortunate to live in such supportive communities. Thank you very much for being here for us.

everyone at Pioneer Memorial Hospice especially her hospice nurse Donna Schonbachler, physician's assistant Sheridan Tamasky, and Dr. Datta for all their care and attention to her final needs.

The family is also very grateful for the friends who visited, sent cards and brought flowers in the three months of her illness. She loved Heppner and all her friends at golf, bingo, Bookworms and the Senior Center. She is greatly missed.

Joyce Dinkins
Ashes Scattered

On Sunday, May 22, 2005 in the early morning, the ashes of Joyce Dinkins were scattered by plane in the Brooks Range of northern Alaska, west of Double Mountain on a tributary of the Sheenjack River. She joined those of her husband Hal. It was a clear blue sunny day with Dall sheep on the mountain. Her daughter Cynthia Brown, and grandson Jay Brown were able to fulfill her final wish.

Joyce passed away peacefully at home in Heppner on April 12. Her family thanks
