The Morrow County Sheriff's Office, with the assistance from the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office, is investigating the incident.

4-H News

The DIY Kids
By Shadow Kendrick

The DIY Kids 4-H group met June 9 at Valby Church. They learned how to sew quilt patches. The ones that helped them sew are Betty Carlson, Donna Thompson, Kim Thompson, Linda Halvorsen and our leader, Sara Carlson. At noon the members had sack lunches and then got back to work. When we were done we took pictures of the quilts. At our meeting, our treasurer reported our checking account balance was $142.75. Wow. We talked about a lemonade stand at the Fourth of July.

Our next meeting, July 6, we will bring fabric and scissors. We are going to make PJs and will bring sack lunches again.

Members, don't forget fair registration is due July 15. July 27 is a practice cooking demonstration at the fairgrounds in Heppner. Members should bring utensils.
