CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to all who have been so loving and caring to us while we have lived in Heppner. You have made living here a wonderful part of our lives. We will never forget you and we will always care about what is going on in this community. A very special thank you to Peggy Fishburn and Sally Walker and to all who participated in the beautiful friendship quilt and for the great dinner. Thank you, MaryAnn, for the wonderful food. Thank you to Ann and John and all of Murray's crew and to the Methodist Church. We have received many cards and each one is so special to us.

Love, Cam and Jim Wishart

Thank you to Velma Wight and Dorris Graves (and possibly others whose names we did not get):

Two weeks ago, I unintentionally left a container of money at the St. Pat's Senior Apartments, in the "sitting room." I realized my mistake a week later. I called the Senior Center office to ask if someone might have turned it in. Lo and behold! The above mentioned, honest, thoughtful people had taken it to the office.

What a great feeling this experience has given me. To think that someone would find almost $40, mostly in change, and take it to the place they thought the owner might look for it... is to think good thoughts about our senior citizens, living in Heppner, and about human nature in general!

Thanks again, ladies, from the bridge-playing foursome that has been accumulating that amount over about seven years of going set.

John's Place will no longer continue to operate on a daily basis. We are closing as of September 1, 2005. Bucknum's Catering will continue to serve this community and we will open the restaurant for special occasions, wedding receptions and community meetings, large or small. We appreciate your business! Please call 676-5481 to schedule your event.

Thank you for your support.
