CARD OF THANKS

Thank you, Central Red Apple, for the nice Sharp TV that I won in your drawing. What a surprise!

Congratulations on your 17th anniversary.

Wilbur and I would like to thank all of our friends and family for all of their prayers, flowers and visits during Wilbur's illness. Thank you to Lyle and Virginia for taking us to Walla Walla. Thank you to the doctors and nurses also. Everyone has been so caring. Thank you!

I would like to thank the FARM Foundation board for giving me the opportunity to be the volunteer museum director for the past five years. I have resigned as of Aug. 1 to pursue other interests.

Since the summer of 2000, I have worked with the board and many volunteers in creating "Dinner at the Cemetery," new exhibits, new storage facilities, an art gallery, and the genealogy department. We have cleaned, painted, organized and taken pride in the Morrow County Museum and what it has to offer to our communities. Now is the time to pull together and volunteer hours when the museum re-opens in March. I hope you enjoy your efforts as much as I enjoyed mine.

Contact Cliff Green, Larry Mills or Bob Harrison if you are interested in working at the museum.

Thank you so much for the flowers, cards, candy, magazines and visits during my most recent hospital stay. I'm home now and look forward to getting out and about again.

Thank you to Dr. Datta and the Pioneer Memorial Hospital staff for their wonderful care during my two week stay and to Donna Schonbachler for the after care. A special thank you to Rusty Estes, Randy Rayburn and Carl Lauritsen for moving my lift chair from home to hospital and back. Only in Heppner would this have taken place. Also, thanks to the ambulance crew for their quick response when I fell. Thanks to George Nairns for bringing Joe to the hospital for a visit; as always, above and beyond the call of duty.

Thanks to my family, Judy, Kyle, Mike and family, and Scott and family for their visits and support.

Sharon and Keith, Judy also thanks you for the wonderful food you prepared while she and Kyle were running back and forth to Pendleton to visit me. Also, thanks to Calvin for trimming my tree.

God Bless you all,
Delmer Buschke

We would like to extend our appreciation and heartfelt thanks for the many cards, food, flowers and memorial contributions in memory of our mother and grandmother, Melba Quackenbush. Also to Dr. Datta, the staff at Willow Creek Assisted Living, Pioneer Memorial Hospital, Ashley Manor in Hermiston, and the many friends and family members who helped care for Mom and Gram. We were so blessed to have her with us for 95 years. She is greatly missed and her memories will always be with us.
