Mustang girls open CBC with win over Knights

By Rick Paullus

The Heppner Mustang varsity girls broke open a close game with a 22-4 run from the end of the first through the middle of the second quarters to take a 58-29 win over the Irrigon Knights on Friday, December 16, to open Columbia Basin Conference play in Irrigon. The Mustangs, three and three over all, will have non-league games at the Camas, WA, tournament on Wednesday, December 29, and at DeSales on Friday, December 30, before getting back into CBC play the following weekend.

The Mustangs took a 6-2 lead early on a rebound basket by Katie Kilkenny and four points from Regi Seitz, but the Knights came back to tie it at 6-6. Aftan Betsinger scored off a pass from Megan Orr and Kilkenny scored off a rebound, and after the Knights got to within 10-8, the Mustangs took off. Orr scored off a steal, Betsinger scored inside, Sherilyn Peck scored off an assist from Orr and Seitz got a steal and a lay-in to make it 18-8 at the end of one.

After Knights scored to open the second, Peck and Kilkenny scored inside, Seitz hit a short jumper and Kilkenny fed Peck for a lay-in to make it 26-10. Seitz hit one of two free throws and made a lay-in and Whitney Matthews hit a three-pointer as the Mustangs took a 32-16 lead at the half.

The Mustangs started the third like they ended the second as Orr hit a three-pointer, Seitz scored off a rebound and Betsinger scored twice to make it 40-18. Kilkenny hit one of two free throws and Orr scored five straight points as they took a 46-22 lead into the fourth quarter.

Matthews hit a three-pointer and a long jumper and Seitz converted a three-point play to increase the lead to 54-24. Lynan Bingham and Kylie Doherty each hit one of two free throws and Matthews hit a short jumper to close out the scoring as the Mustangs cruised to the 58-29 win.

Seitz led the Mustangs with 15 points, 10 rebounds, four steals and four assists. Matthews had 10 points, Kilkenny had nine points and eight rebounds, Betsinger had five rebounds and two assists and Lyndi Patton and Taylor Kempas each had four rebounds and two steals.
