To the Community of Heppner,

Jay and our family would like to take this time to thank the community of Heppner, friends and family for all the support, prayers and kindness you have shown us over the past several weeks with Jay's recent surgery.

Tears came to my eyes when we returned home to a Christmas tree, lights, cards and meals. Our phone and front door has been busy with friends and family checking in on Jay. All I can think about is how lucky we are to be raising a family in Heppner. I have never felt such deep Christmas spirit, support and caring. We know how busy life can get with jobs, kids and the holidays, yet people stopped and took time to brighten our day and help us through this time. We thank you for being the wonderful, generous people you are.

So, from our home to yours, may the true meaning of Christmas touch your hearts like Heppner has touched ours. Happy Holidays and Thank You again.
