CARD OF THANKS

Thank you to Dr. Wenberg and the nursing staff for the excellent care I received.

We'd also like to thank all the people who called locally and long-distance and for all who brought food, stopped by and gave us rides to Pendleton. Many thanks!

Phil and Bettie Doherty

The Family of Max Harris would like to thank all the people for the cards and prayers, and those who helped in making things easier for him in his last few days. A special thanks to the ladies of the Heppner Elks for the food and extra work in serving lunch. Also, thanks to the ladies of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the All Saints Episcopal Church for the food.

I was totally surprised to be named "Woman of the Year" on Jan. 12. I have collected my thoughts enough now, although I remain in awe, to say "Thank You" to whomever nominated me for the Chamber of Commerce award and to the selection committee who voted to so honor me. And I also thank the individuals who have shared kind congratulatory words with me.

Doris Brosnan

The friends and family of Richard Cox would like to thank Tim Van Cleave, Sweeney Mortuary and the Heppner Elks for such a fine service. All the time spent by the Lady Elks and friends of the family made a rough day a lot easier. It really shows what a fine community that Morrow County has.

Our heartfelt thanks to all of you;
 Randie Cox

We would like to thank all of the people that made the junior high girls' basketball tournament last weekend a success. To Terri Gentry and Jan Coe for supervising and helping at the game sites; to Whitney Matthews for all of her organizing help; to John McCabe, Ron Bowman, Kevin Payne, Josh Coiner, Mike Doherty, Ken Grieb, Forrest McKinnis and Chuck Matteson for refereeing the games; to Kresimir Waite, Jason Palmer and Kylie VanArsdale for running the clocks; and to all of the parents for helping in the snack shack. We realize that we couldn't have done it without all of your help. Thanks!

A big "Thank You" to my family and friends from all across the U.S.A. who gave me surprise gifts of many birthday cards. The "you remembers and comments" are being put on my computer for future enjoyment. Hope to have this completed before my next birthday. Thanks again.

As always,
 Dorris L. Graves

We would like to take this long overdue opportunity to thank all those who helped make our wedding day such a successful and cherished event. We apologize for taking so long; as you know, life happens, but your efforts and generosity were never forgotten.

Many thanks to Pastor Keith Brudevold, Donita and the United Methodist Church for a lovely church wedding as well as Pastor's eternal gift of song; and to the Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 and Ann, our level-headed, good-humored bartender for a terrific reception - it was outstanding!

To our lifesaver, Sandy VanLew, for last minute gown alterations, as well as to Mom and Hope DeClue in that department!

To Diane Munkers and her entire family for all the delicious food and service - you're out of this world! Our servers - Ayla, Lynelle Bowie, and Hannah Jones - beauty and service with a smile!

To Bruce and Liz Pettibone, thank you so much for your help in decorating both at the church and the reception - your energy and enthusiasm was so appreciated! For your efforts
