Special presentation to be held at All Saints

The character, Simon of Cyrene, will be presented by Rev. Wallace Prowell during the 11 a.m. worship service at All Saints Episcopal Church on April 30.

Rev. Prowell's first presentation of this from the book, "If Only I Had Known," by David P. Polk was in 1996. Since then he has presented it over 250 times to church groups, prison chapels, senior citizens groups, service clubs among others in 14 different states.

Pastor Mike Bailey responded in this way, "I was transported back in time by your reenactment of Simon of Cyrene. You took me to Jesus' point of passion where I was no longer a casual observer, but a player, a participant in the divine drama being played out for my soul by God and Satan. Thank you for the reminder that I am loved from an eternal perspective."

A parishioner, Carol Zander from Tigard said, "The children's comments to their parents were very revealing. They asked, 'Why didn't we ever hear about him before?' and 'Wow. I felt like I knew that Simon was right there to hear him tell his story.'"

The public is invited to share this event.

Mustangs swept by Tigers

Robbie Smith stops the runner from making it home Saturday at the Heppner Mustangs vs. Stanfield Tigers game.

By Rick Paullus

The Stanfield Tigers took sole possession of first place in the Columbia Basin Conference East Division by sweeping the Heppner Mustangs 16-5 in six innings and 4-3 in eight innings on Saturday, April 22 in Heppner. The Mustangs, 3 and 2 in the CBC and 5 and 8 overall, will be at Weston-McEwen on Saturday, April 29 for a doubleheader at 11 a.m. before returning home for a game against Umatilla on Tuesday, May 2 at 4:30 p.m.

The Mustangs fell into a hole in the first game early as the Tigers scored three runs each in the first and second innings. They finally put a run on the board in the bottom of the third when Tony Bolin doubled, Colton Hanson walked, Quinn Peck singled to load the bases and Nacho Elguezabal walked to force in a run.

After the Tigers added a run in the fourth, the Mustangs answered in the bottom half when with two out, Bolin singled, Hanson reached on an error and Peck drilled a home run to right-center to cut the lead to 7-4.

The Tigers added a run in the fifth, but the Mustangs answered in the bottom half when Nathan Kennedy tripled and came home on a Dan Basile groundout to cut the lead to 8-5. That was as close as they would get though as the Tigers blew the game open with an eight-run sixth inning and the Mustangs couldn't answer as the game ended on the ten-run rule.

Peck was two for three with three RBI and Bolin went two for four and scored twice.

The Mustangs took an early lead in the second game as Andre Rauch and Robbie Smith each hit solo homeruns in the second inning. It stayed 2-0 until the fourth when the Tigers scored a run to cut the lead in half.

The Tigers took a 3-2 lead in the fifth, but the Mustangs came back to tie it in the bottom half when Hanson doubled, Peck singled and Rauch had a RBI single.

The Mustangs had a chance to win it in the bottom of the seventh when Bolin sent a deep fly ball to left that was caught against the fence, then they had Peck at third with two outs, but couldn't get him home.

Rauch went seven innings giving up just three hits, one earned run and striking out four, while going two for four with two RBI at the plate. Peck went two for three and Hanson went two for four.
