

Auditions to be held for high school performance of Grease

Heppner High School Drama Department will be conducting auditions Aug. 14-16 at 7 p.m., at the high school cafeteria for the fall production of "Grease." All incoming ninth through 12th graders are invited to audition for the various parts. The production will be a musical.

All actors are asked to bring two readings from the script and one singing number from the play for audition. Music accompaniment is provided at the audition.

Junior high students will be given the opportunity to perform in this play due to the need for many extras.

EOU announces 2006 spring term dean's list

Eastern Oregon University has announced the dean's list for spring term, 2006. More than 400 students achieved and maintained a grade point average of 3.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale. Students must have completed a minimum of 12 hours of graded coursework for the length of the term to qualify.

EOU's spring 2006 list includes names of students from throughout Oregon, the nation and countries around the world.

Students from the area who were named to the dean's list include: William Hurl of Heppner and Amelia Peck of Lexington.

Eastern Oregon University serves as an educational, cultural and scholarly center in La Grande, connecting the rural regions of the state to a wider world. For more information, visit www.eou.edu.

Junior high auditions for non-speaking, extra parts will be the first week of school. Junior high extras will have separate practices from high school actors.

There will also be a student as assistant stage manager for this production. Let Jodi Chapa know if you are interested in this position.

Those who wish to audition need to contact Chapa at 676-8161 to arrange pick up of script for preparation for audition or to get on the list for musicians, backstage vocalists, costume assistants, set/scenery assistants and stage hand positions.

RHS graduate completes basic training

PUBLIC NOTICE OREGON MILITARY DEPARTMENT

INVITATION TO COMMENT ON PROPOSED WEAPONS TRAINING RANGES ON NAVAL WEAPONS SYSTEM TRAINING FACILITY, BOARDMAN

The National Guard Bureau and the Oregon Military Department are proposing to construct and operate four live-fire weapons training ranges on the Naval Weapons System Training Facility, Boardman, located approximately five miles south of Boardman, Oregon. The ranges would include a Multi-Purpose Machinegun Range for machineguns and light weapons, a Multi-Purpose Training Range for larger vehicle-mounted weapons such as battle tanks and fighting vehicles, and two Convoy Live-Fire Ranges for training responses to hostile threats during vehicle convoy operations.

The Oregon Military Department has prepared an analysis of the potential environmental impacts of this proposal in a draft Environmental Assessment (EA), which is available for public review and comment. Copies of the draft EA may be reviewed at:
