SELL IN A HURRY

QUESTION: I am anxious to sell my home in the shortest amount of time possible. Any advice?

ANSWER: There are a few people who will drive by and see your sign. There are very few people who will see your ad in the short time you have available. The best way to sell your home in a hurry is to call my office. I have a ready pool of prospects. Many homes which sell in a short amount of time do so because a Realtor knows precisely the needs of a buyer he or she has been working with.

QUESTION: My kitchen looks like a picture out of the silent movies and my bathroom would only appeal to the Ancient Mariner. Would it make more sense to remodel or "move up" to a better home?

ANSWER: Get an estimate from a contractor on modernizing and compare this with the cost of moving up to a better home. Kitchen and bath renovations are costly, complex and disrupting. Often, it's better to move up to a house that already has what you want.
