This last week was extremely busy for the Morrow County Fair and OPR Court. They had a full schedule starting Wednesday and ending Sunday, Aug. 16-20.
 On Wednesday, they directed the kid's games including the watermelon seed spitting contest and a few carnival games for the little ones. They were also involved in the Pet Show, then the RDO tractor pull, which was attended by a record number of children. To finish the day, they modeled their outfits in the 4-H Style Revue during intermission. This year, the Pee Wee Style Revue was a big hit, with more than 20 kids participating.

 On Thursday after finishing conformation, the court helped out with the Columbia River Processing sponsored ice cream social, they donated six tubs of Tillamook Ice Cream. Many kids and adults enjoyed the ice cream. Then the court relaxed a little bit before going and helping with slack at the OPR arena.
 On Friday, after Heather, Josie and Jarreid finished showmanship, they had little time to relax before having to do Grand Entry in the arena.

Saturday was a busy day with the parade starting at 10 a.m., the group was lined up by 8:30 a.m. afterwards they attended the luncheon in the old beef barn, where they received gifts and were thanked by the Rodeo committee for doing a good job of promoting them. After eating, they rushed to get their horses ready for the Grand Entry. Then they attended the 4-H/FFA awards ceremony and participated in the livestock auction.
 Finally, Sunday after attending the Wrangler's breakfast the court was able to relax and help out with MOCO day.
