CARD OF THANKS

Dear Family and Friends,
 I want to thank everyone for all of the cards and flowers that I received while in the hospital. Likewise, thank you for your many prayers that were said on my behalf. My surgery went well and I am now at home recovering. I also want to thank the members of my family who have been taking care of me. I couldn't get along without your help.

Sincerely,
 Helen Pettyjohn

With the passing of the older generation, there are things lost. We, as a family, will try and preserve all we can.

We wish to thank the community for the great outpouring of love and caring shown to us during Mother's illness. Thank you all for the great many calls, cards and offers of helping hands.

A huge thank you to the Hospice team. Heppner has its own private angels in Donna and Cyde, who helped so much in making this difficult time into a graceful transition. And to all the rest of you who were in our home helping, a very special thank you.

Sherree Mahoney, thank you for being my rock.
