City Public Works staff unable to access meters

Due to the water meter lids being covered by ice and snow, the Public Works staff have been unable to access the meters to take the readings necessary to compute water bills. They will be using last month's water usage for this month's estimated water usage to compute bills.

When the meters become available for access, corrections for any over or under usage will be made.

Keithleys celebrate 50th anniversary

The Keithleys

LaVerne and Virginia Keithley 1957

La Verne and Virginia "Ginger" (Schwarzin) Keithley celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, January 13. The anniversary celebration was held from noon until 3 p.m. at the Heppner Odd Fellows Lodge.

The Keithleys were married on January 13, 1957, at the Heppner Christian Church.

Ginger worked at Coast to Coast for several years and then was at Peterson's Jewelers for 14 years. She now volunteers at the Heppner Neighborhood Center. Her hobbies include sewing, ceramics, and selling her crafts at various holiday bazaars.

La Verne was a local farmhand, was employed by Kinzua Mill as a self-employed wood worker and now works for the Willow Creek Park District as a RV park caretaker. He is a member of the Heppner Elks Lodge. He is also a volunteer at the Neighborhood Center and helps Ginger at the craft shows.

The couple are lifetime residents of the Heppner area.

The couple have four children: Ruth Ann Keithley and Dave Aitken of Irrigon, Linda and Brian Voltz of Gold Canyon, AZ, Suzanne and Jerry Buentello of Milton Freewater, and Jay and Kellyjo Keithley; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.
