CASON PETERSON TERJESON

May 8, 1991

July 14, 2007

Cason Peterson Terjeson was a son, grandson, nephew, cousin, friend but most all an individual who brought so much into the lives of all who knew him. On July 14, 2007, Cason began his new life and destiny in heaven. While we feel he was taken from us much too soon we are reassured in the knowledge that God has bigger and better plans for him. We love and miss him everyday but we will take comfort in knowing he is our Guardian Angel who will look over us and guide us throughout our lives.

We would like to take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who remembered our family by sending flowers, food, cards, gifts, words and thoughts of comfort, donations, hugs and prayers during this extremely challenging time. Your outpouring of support has meant so much to all us and will help us begin the journey towards healing. At difficult times like this, we are thankful to live in community that cares so much.

Pennies from Heaven.....

Pennies from Cason.....

As Cason will always be in our prayers and hearts, so you will be too.

Financial Performance

BEO Bancorp delivered record earnings in the second quarter of 2007 at $583,000. This is a 63% increase over the $358,000 earned in 2Q2006. Earnings per share increased to $1.32 per share compared to $.81 earned in 2Q2006. YTD earnings of $1,039,000 for the first half of 2007 are at record levels and compare to earnings of $601,000 in the first half of 2006, an improvement of 73%. "We are extremely gratified at the results of the second quarter of 2007 and the first half of the year. Primary drivers of this improvement are an improving net interest margin, solid loan growth, and loan fee income generation," said President and CEO, E. George Koffler.

ROAA improved in the second quarter to 1.21% for the quarter and 1.09% for the first half of 2007. ROAE also showed excellent trending, improving to 23.57% for the second quarter and 21.58% YTD.

Revenue and Expense

Total revenue continues a strong upward trend with YTD total income at $7,677,000, a 17% increase over the $6,583,000 of last year through the second quarter. Loan fee income for the second quarter increased 278% from $59,604 to $225,477 with mortgage fees, commercial loan fees and loan participation fees leading the way. Interest on loans, which is always a primary profit driver, increased 18% year over year.

Total expenses are showing a slower rate of growth with YTD expenses at $6,638,000, compared to $5,982,000 in 2006, an 11% increase. Of particular note is the interest expense increase year over year of only 3%.

Loan Growth and Credit Quality

Loan growth continues to be a foundation of the bank's improving performance with total loans standing at $131,370,000 at quarter end, a 9.9% increase over last year and an 11.4% increase over the linked quarters. "We continue to grow organically in our footprint with strong local relationships. We also have leveraged our relationships with other top performing community banks and purchased good quality participation loans to supplement that growth," said EVP and CCO, Jeff Bailey.

"Credit quality is sound," said Bailey. "We had no past dues at quarter end compared to

.06% at the end of the first quarter," he added. Charge offs for the quarter were $2,370 and recoveries $1,722. There was a single non-accrual loan booked at quarter end totaling $48,000, secured by real estate. No loss is expected on the credit.

Deposit Growth and Operations

Deposits grew 3.8% year over year from $162,669,000 to $168,869,000. Adding to the funding mix was increased sweep repurchase balances growing from $3,910,000 to $9,402,000 in the past twelve months. "We continue to generate more than sufficient deposit and other liability funds to support loan growth," said EVP and COO, Gary Propheter. "This month Bank of Eastern Oregon will bring live its first Remote Deposit

Capture Service customer. We are excited about this addition to our business product line and how it will enable us to better service business customers in our
