KEEP HOME SAFE WHILE AWAY

Statistics say that nine out of ten burglaries are preventable. For that unpreventable tenth burglary, check your insurance to be sure your coverage is adequate before leaving on vacation. To cover the other 90 percent of preventable burglaries, here are some tips:

Obviously, you could equip your home with an electronic security system, but simple precautions are often just as helpful in diverting unwanted attention. Leave blinds in the usual position. Turn the sound on your telephone down so that it can't be heard outside. Suspend mail and newspaper deliveries. Arrange to have your lawn mowed. Use automatic timers to turn lights and perhaps a radio or TV on at appropriate times.

Check to be sure that all of your windows and door locks are adequate to prevent break-ins. Put your cash, jewelry and other valuables where burglars cannot get to them - in a safe deposit box. That extra trip to the bank can save you a lot of grief.
