problems in the past. It was also reported that all the rooms in the center are rented out (expect for one that needs work done on it).

The council also heard a complaint from Lorie Fox who said the Elder Street Bridge leading to her home needs some work. Fox said the boards on the bridge are not secured down very well and are banging on the bottom of vehicles driving over the bridge.

City officials said some minor repairs could be done to the bridge, but the city does not have enough money to replace the bridge.

City Council discussed the new traffic measures installed by city crew at Heppner Elementary school recently.
